That about Sixteen or Eighteen Years ago Mr Chas Ridgely was about to purchase Cubbs Hills & the Resurvey belonging to it and brought James Moore to Run the first & Second Lines of Darnalls Sylvania and Employed this Deponent as one of the Chain Carriers & began to Run the first Line of the said Sylvania from the Poplar above described being a Forked one that Mr Moore Told Mr Ridgely the Tree above described Was the Beginning Tree of s[d] Sylvania & further saith not

Abram Wright

The Deposition of James Ingram / Son of Benjamin / Who being of the age of thirty Nine Years or thereabouts being duly Sworn and being at the poplar Tree above described in Abraham Wrights Deposition Deposeth & Saith that about thirty Years Ago When Depon[ts] Father had a Law Suit with Char[s] Carroll Esq[r] he saw the first Line of Darnalls Camp Run but how Near the Course Ended to the forked poplar Where he now is he Cannot Remember but Remembers that Some of the People then present Went to the Tree above Mentioned Who said they saw Some Notches in it that they therefore Concluded it was the bounded Tree that ever since that time the same Tree has been deem'd a bounded Poplar by the Neighbours about & further saith not

James [his mark] Ingram

Baltimore County 23 Nov[r] 1782

The Commiss[rs] Mett & Were present

Tho[s] Sollers & William Neill

The Deposition of Samuel Clark being of full Age and duly Sworn being at a Poplar Tree Standing on the side of a Hill West Northerly of the Depon[t] Dwelling House and the same Tree described by Wm Pickett & Ananias Dwyer in their Several Depositions of Yesterday Deposeth & Saith that he Depon[t] happened to come into the Company of David Clark the Surveyor at the time that he had finished Running the first Line of Darnalls Camp in the fall of 1781 and that the said Line Ended about Sixteen or Seventeen Perches to the Northward of the Tree where he now Stands at & as above Described That in Consequence of the Uncertainty of Information given said Clark that the Tree Where he now Stands at as above Described Not being a Bounded Tree he the said David Clark said he thought fitt to Lay the Camp Down as well from the Number of Perches as from the said Tree and that the Commiss[rs] might Settle in w[ch] manner they Pleased that in the Month of April or May Last When the said David Clark Run the Courses of Darnalls Sylvania he began the first Course of the said Sylvania from the End of the Number of Perches of the first Line of Darnalls Camp which was Sixteen or Seventeen Perches to the Northward of the said Poplar Tree Where he now Stands at on being asked if he ever heard that Col[o] Wm Young Run the first Line of Darnalls Sylvania from the Tree Where He is now at Answers believes he has heard so & further saith not

Sam[l] Clark

Baltimore County 23 Nov[r] 1782 The Commiss[rs] mett & Were present

Tho[s] Sollers & William Neill

The Deposition of John Buck of the Age of Sixty Six Years or thereabouts Who being duly Sworn and being at a forked Poplar the same Described by Abram Wright & James Ingram in their Depositions of this Date Deposeth & Saith that he has at Sundry times Saw the first Line of Darnalls Camp Run Which began at the two Black Oak near the pines and it always ended up the Little Spring branch to the Northward of the Poplar above described fifty or Sixty Yards more or Less that about Forty two or forty three Years ago he was a Liver with the Widow Ingram & made a Crop in the family and often heard the said Widow Ingram Darcus Tudor and many Others of the family say that the bounded Poplar the Second Tree of Darnalls Camp was cut down by Michael Byran that at the same time or near the same time he this Depon[t] Asked the said Darcus Tudor Being then in the House which at that time Stood Close by the present Dwelling House of Sam[l] Clark / Where this bounded Poplar Stood When She the said Darcas Came out into the Yard & Casting her hand up the hill to the Right hand of the House & to the Northward of