

File No. 46845

Baltimore, December 13, 1926

Lee I. Hecht, Esq.
 President, Appeal Tax Court
 City Hall
 Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Sir:

14237

On the 1st of December you requested my opinion regarding the legality of the request for abatement of assessment on an automobile owned by Lieutenant Colonel Edgar S. Stayer, stationed at Camp Holabird.

Assistant City Solicitor John Henry Lewin has written me an opinion covering the entire subject, a copy of which I enclose, and in which I concur.

In the administration of the subject matter, please be governed by the conclusions in that opinion.

Very truly yours,
 (Signed) CHARLES C. WALLACE
 City Solicitor

IN RE: Taxability of automobiles belonging to officers and enlisted men at Camp Holabird.

Dear Mr. Wallace:

14238

Lieutenant Colonel Edgar S. Stayer, Quarter Master Corps, commanding at Camp Holabird, Baltimore, on behalf of himself and fellow officers and the enlisted men stationed at Camp Holabird, has objected to the assessment, for purposes of State and City property taxation, of automobiles privately owned by these officers and enlisted men.
