PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY E. WELLS, JR. & G. W. HODGES,

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Single copies 64 cents.

ADVERTISEMENTS .- $1 per square for three insertions-14 lines of small type or 16 of large type lished until forbid, and charged accordingly. A the year. post paid.

AGRICULTURE.

From the American Farmer.

the open periods of the winter. But the sleeping apartments. from danger of its becoming mortar, a con- bedding. dition always consequent upon the ploughing of stiff clays when wet. If ploughed in less to all the purposes of cultivation. vegetable matter, facilitate the formation of integrity. crops which may be grown upon it.

of grain has been an unprofitable concern, a just reward for labor bestowed, and inte- will have carefully hung up.

drains examined, and every clod, stone, or growing condition. stick, carefully removed, so that no impedimay be avoided by deep ploughing, laying grasses. dry, by surface drains, and by keeping those | Coal Ashes.—For most lands in grass, a lance with every one, nor did he remain Russias. drains free from obstructions.

a full supply of fencing timber, and prepare Gardens, whose soils are stiff clays, that cupied in reading works. The popular herd, is very like a scene I once saw in all breaches in your fences—and be as sure to avail yourself of the first convenient moment, when such work can be done, to have in the degree of friability, which results lic attention. every pannel of fence on your farm or plan- from the action of the frost. tation thoroughly examined, and as thoroughly repaired.

clean—sprinkle plaster, charcoal or marl quantity of marl,) and mix it with 25 loads ing, "Gentlemen the book of Chateaubriand ceive the liquid voidings of the horses, and it out, spread it on an acre of ground evento preserve the horses' eyes from those in- tity of stable or barn-yard manure alone. flammatory diseases which result from foul Amer. Farmer. stables. Your horses should be provided comb and whisp of straw must be daily the Flower department.

plied—twice a week, a gill of salt or the same quantity of a mixture of equal parts of during the first mild weather, and the beds ing episodes.

the reproaches which the conquered made would be killed. So, addressing one party, a bachelor.

A woman that paints, puts up a bill that she is to let.

salt, lime, and ashes, should be regularly, protected from frost by means of litter, &c. THE BOX OF THE PARISIAN EDITORS. at stated hours, three times a day attended to—and equal attention must be paid to giving them fresh water as often. To save shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the Chambre of the shutters, and give plenty of air, on every land, entitled "A journey round the chambre of the shutters, and every land, entitled "A journey round the chambre of the shutters, and every land, entitled "A journey round the chambre of the shutters, and every land, entitled "A journey round the chambre of the shutters, and every land, entitled "A journey round the chambre of the shutters, and every land, entitled "A j For one year, if paid within six months, ... $1 50 process you may do with one-third less, Greenhouse plants require but little at- ber of Deputies, by Slavonian."

Milch Cows.—As butter brings a fair to constitute a square—25 cents for every subse- price, you can afford now to feed your cows ing plenty of air every fine day. quent insertion. If the number of insertions be upon some nourishing grain slops. Corn not marked on the advertisement it will be pub- ground in the cob makes a rich mess when liberal deduction made to those who advertise by scalded or boiled into slop, and is highly conducive to the encouragement of the for-Communications addressed to this office must be mation of cream. See then, that your cows get a just allowance of slops, that they are supplies of water. of hay and water.

Working Oxen.—If you desire that these animals should be in good condition and as need it, should be repotted. WORK FOR JANUARY ON THE FARM. able to perform the work which will be im-Winter Ploughing.—All stiff tenacious posed upon them, allow them daily feeds of be removed to the parlor or greenhouse. clays, intended for spring crops, should be grain, and plenty of hay; have them well ploughed either late in the fall or during cleanad and provided with beds and warm breaking up of such lands should never be Stock generally .- Every thing of the kind undertaken, unless it be in that peculiar should be protected from the inclemency of state between moist and dry, which enables winter, by dry sheds or stables, be regular-however, advantage be taken to plough when the soil is right, neither wet nor dry, but least once a week. But while the comfort teenth century. moderately moist, the effect of the action of it must not be forgotten to feed them. Ashes At Malmaison, Bonaparte was no more the teges of the editors smuggle themselves inthe winter's alternations of freezing and and charcoal should be kept in a trough, man of the battle-field than of the council to this box, with a passionate fondness for one who was a great favorite in a provinthawing will be, to disintegrate the particles where, as their appetite may indicate, they chamber. He left, if I may so express my- the debates of this Chamber on a small cial town where I lived, and she was inof clay, render it friable, lessen the labor of may take a dose to neutralize acids, and self, his glory at the door and retained only scale. It is a sight to see, too, with what cultivation, excite the decomposition of preserve the tone of their stomachs in their his affectionate qualities. The conqueror a polite and insinuating air some belated the silicate of potash, and greatly increase Tools, Impliments, Carts, Wagons, and maison only a good citizen, exclusively oc- lating the word,) hands in a note to these the quantity, and improve the quality of the Geering.—The careful husbandman will cupied with the affection of his family. but now, when prices offer something like black, and such as may not be in use, he rand, Volney, Cabaria, Deagenettes, Lanay, themselves with the small whims, petty rest involved, grain-growers cannot look too | Young Cattle.-These should be kept in Isabry, Mehul, Chaudet, and Talma. And tors then crowding around the tribune.sharply, nor watch too closely, to seize up- a separate yard from the old ones. In a this elite of the amiable and sprightly con- They know a hundred adventures and anecon the point of time when maximum prices trough, under cover, there should at all times versationalists, naturally associated with the dotes-like the malicious chroniclers of the are to be obtained; nor can they be too re- be kept, a mixture of lime, ashes and salt, family of Bonaparte, where were to be seen, Eil de Bæuf-and, for my own part, I have gardful of not being caught in the meshes in equal portions, to which they can have as is well known, many charming women. retained more than one of these; but their of speculators—those conscientious gentry, free access. As to their feed, though we It was in the fresh shades of Malmaison repetition here would be a bad return for lied on me for telling her if the cheat was who travel on the "wings of the wind" to are averse from stuffing them, we would that the brothers of the hero, who were at my welcome into that box. I leave them make money out of the want of information certainly recommend that they be sufficient- a late date to wear the crowns of Naples, of to the ingenious indiscretion of the anthors of others, and thus to batten on ill-gotten ly well fed, to keep them from that state of Spain, of Holland, and of Westphalia, might of all sorts of "Mysteries." The box in Grain Fields.—At least twice a month, satisfied. In a word, they should get enough served for them, and discover, so to speak, president, elected at the commencement of the grain fields should have all the surface- to eat to preserve them in good heart and the sceptres which were then hidden in the each session, to keep its peace and maintain the painter."

Old Fields.—If you have any old fields ment be left to prevent the free progress of that afford but indifferent pasture in sum- the directory, and the cold rigid etiquette of of Paris harmonize. The editors' box is, "Don the water, as nothing is more destructive to mer, seize the first occasion when you can the old court, there reigned a freedom full and ever will be a Babel—but an alluring the plants of winter grain, than being flood-spare the time this winter, in moist weather, of elegance. There each expressed himself Babel, and a very instructive one—where I ed by water in winter or early spring. That to sow on every acre of it, a bushel of plas-freely. The savan could sustain his sys- have spent many a happy hour, and whose it is one of the causes of what is called ter, and we shall be greatly disappointed, if tems, the diplomatist his designs, the artist diversity of opinions and sentiments I greatwinter killing, we have never entertained a by the first of June next, it does not furnish and the poet their reveries, with the same ly prefer to the uniformity of praise uttered and a prettier pair of stockings I never saw." doubt, and we are as clear of doubt that it a rich green carpet of white clover and other independence as in their own saloons. The by my compatriots in the mines of Siberia coal ashes make an excellent top dressing a stranger to a single debate of art, science,

Fencing and Fences.—Be sure to secure we will merely say to those who may have evenings at Malmaison were sometimes oc-

Stables and Horses.—Keep your stables 25 or 30 bushels of lime, (or double that thus the opinions of all his auditors in sayover that part of the stalls where it can reof clay, let stand for a few weeks, then haul predominates." absorb the ammonia which they contain. | ly-that done, sprend thereon 10 double These agents, besides being absorbents, and cart loads of good strong stable or barnas such, the economizers of much manure yard manure, and plough the whole in, and ers also, and in that respect would act so as if you had applied double or treble the quan-

at stated hours, three times a day attended Plants in frames will need attention— The following is taken from an interest- gie them a good thrashin'—that's a'."

Cactuses should be kept rather dry.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BONAPARTE AT MALMAISON:

the ploughman to turn it over in a state free ly fed and supplied with straw or leaves for passage or two from an account of Malmai- among themselves a counterpart of the deson, a place which was considered as a bates below. No pen could do justice to humorous dialogue is taken, we believe, Breeding Sows and store pigs should be "haunted house," before it came into the this discussion—so original, varied, piquant, from one of the novels of Dr. Lever, the this latter state, it will remain so throughthis latter state, it will remain so throughout the season, and of course prove profitwith hadding which should be removed at the season, and of course prove profitwith hadding which should be removed at the season, and outrageous invectors and outrageous invectors.

It had been the gibing fancies, witty sallies, sarcastic hits, warm pen, which should be well supplied extravagant eulogies, and outrageous invectors and outrageous invectors. If, with bedding, which should be removed at the scene of wonderful events in the nine-tives, pass from mouth to mouth, and min-for a dance," said Dr. Growling; "they are thoroughly examine every thing of the kind, Every one was received at Malmaison with his representative zeal, giving explanations, Threshing and Cleaning Grain.—As the and have the necessary repairs promptly equal courtesy, though the intimate society or complaining of a mis-report. And then prices of grain are now remunerative, we made; he will be also equally careful to see of the Consul consisted of a very small this box has its intimate and private converwould add use all to get all they have out, so as to be ready for market at any time that their interest may point it out as the proper tected from the elements. His harness and lerman, Duroc, Berthier, Murat, and Junot. part of its frequenters, disdaining the Salle ed for going to the ball in proper twig. one to sell at. For years past the raising gearing he will of course have well cleaned Among the savans, the diplomatists, the lite- des Pas Perdus, remain here; and, halfand rubbed with neat's foot oil and lamp- rati, and the artists, were Messrs. de Talley. reclined upon the benches, gaily amuse Cenon, Chenier, Ducos, Le Mercier, David, crosses, and private intrigues of the legislahunger which makes them fretful and dis-suspect the high distances which was re-question is a democratic republic: it has a consular fasces.

republican coarseness, from the bad tone of into this box, as to make the thirty journals Consul mingled in their conversations, broke in honor of his Majesty the Emperor of the Firewood.—We hope that you have al- A hundred bushels to the acre will sweeten literature, or politics. Thus with Lemarcier An Illustration of War.—Hogg, the several ladies asked her to recommend her ready followed our oft-repeated advice, and the soil, encourage the growth of valuable and Talma, he sustained the preeminence Ettrick Shepherd, in one of his quaint and dyer to them. So you see what a woman have now in your yard a sufficiency of grasses, and ultimately drive out the coarse of Corneille over Raciue, with Denon and wood to last you. If such should not be ones.

Curious lay sermons tells the following story will do to go to a dance Poor little Jenny! she was a merry minx—by the bye, she your situation, let us urge you by every As we have concluded our familiar talk phael, with Desegnattes and Cabiris he de- quite to the point on the subject of war, she was a merry minx—by the bye, she consideration of comfort and humanity to upon the work of the farm, and as there is nounced surgery and medicine, and finally, vividly illustrating what is the upshot of boxed my ears that night for a joke I made accomplish that job without further delay. nothing that can be done in the open garden with De Talleyrand and Volney, he put nearly every sanguinary conflict, the statu fear your stockings should fall down when while the earth is locked up by hoar frost, Montesquieu far above Puffendorf. The quo ante bellum:

> Napoleon himself read the "Genius of A COMPOST FOR SANDY LANDS.—Take Christianity" at Malmaison, and collected

FLORACULTURE. - We copy for the in- would deliver himself up so impetuously to raps were given and received. with plenty of straw for bedding, the which, whenever it becomes wet and soiled, should whenever it becomes wet and soiled, should be ways made prisoner in the very beginning for by this time a number of little girls bed them.

and keeping clean, by fumigation to kill in- lery is that occupied by the editors-in-chief torn into tatters, and addressing the opposnot to injure the already expanded flowers. M. Guizot, M. Thiers, or M. Berryer, be at pered away to their play. the tribune, all is earnest attention; the si- The scene was a lesson of wisdom to me.

—then do the occupants of this box, seated boys' condition—"if ye'll let us alane, we'll on the front benches, wheel round, and, let you alane." We translate, says the U. S. Gazette, a turning their backs to the Chamber, get up gle every tone. Often the friends or pro- immensely fond of saltatory motion. I reof Italy and of Egypt, he who had dictated deputy, or unfortunate reporter to the Chamlaws at Milan and at Memphis, was at Mal-ber, or orator incompris (there is no trans- question. distributors of praise and blame, defending order, with the title of Syndic. * * But

In these assemblies equally distant from it is about as impossible to introduce order it, so that you may have it ready to repair they should seize the occasion of every spell drawingroom was formed into an Areopagus, Nithsdale, Scotland. Two boys from differences—and he as sure their help marity of Nithsdale, Scotland. Two boys from differences will preserve them with nearly all ferent schools met one fine day on the ice. Howers will preserve them, with nearly all They eyed each other awhile in silence, their characteristic odor, for several years. with rather jealous and indignant looks, and Thus roses and aromatic plants may be predefiance on each brow.

"What are ye glowin' at Billy?"

Sometimes, in warm summer evenings, To this a hearty blow was the return, tes. The friction of the salt forces out the the Consul surrounded by his customary and then began such a battle! It being Sa- juice of the flower, and the whole is reducassociates, Hortense, Beauharnois, and Eu-turday, all the boys of both schools were ed to an aromatic paste, which is put away that would otherwise be lost, are sweeten- your ground will produce better crops than gene, his adopted children, would propose on the ice, and the fight instantly became in a cool place until wanted. When distila game of "prison bare" upon the beautiful general. At first they fought at a distance led, the paste is placed in a retort with twice lawn of the place. The two parties would with missile weapons, such as stones and its weight of water.—New York News. be formed, and the game commence, Napo- snowballs; but at length coming hand to leon always confident in his good fortune, hand, they coped in a rage, and many bloody Serenity of mind is nothing worth, unless ways made prisoner in the very beginning for by this time a number of little girls had them. be removed to the manure pile. The curry American Farmer, the work for January in of the game. The exchange of prisoners, joined the affray, and I was afraid they Commend a wedded life, but keep thyself

"O, naething at a' maun; we just want to

My remonstrance was in vain; at it they went afresh; and after fighting till they were quite exhausted, one of the principal heroes if not paid until end of the year, 2 00 and your horses be equally hearty and tention, excepting occasionally a little water The box at the extreme right of the gal-self covered with blood, and his clothes sects, picking off decayed leaves, &c. Giv- of the Paris journals; and that box is the ing party thus: "Weel, I'll tell you what true political barometer of the Chamber, we'll do wi' ye-if you'll let us alane, we'll Camellias will require to be freely water- though visible only to an initiated few. If let you alane." There was no more of it; ed and occasionally syringed, taking care the discussion in progress be important—if the war was at an end, and the boys scam-

Chinese primroses should have moderate lence is broken only by some exclamation I thought at that time, and have often tho't of enthusiasm, or muttered expression of since, that this trivial affray was the last warmly lodged, and get a proper allowance Azaleas will commence growing, when anger or indignation, mingling with the epitome of war in general, that I had ever they should receive liberal spplies of water. signs of blame or assent of the legislators seen. Kings and ministers of state are just Geraniums will be growing now, and such in the French Chamber. But if, on the children I speak of, with only this material contrary, some honorable member attacks difference, that instead of fighting out for Hyacynths planted in November should the tribune, manuscript in hand, or begins a themselves the needless quarrels they have deliberate paraphase of the articles of the raised, they sit in safety and look on, hound journals (as happens at times)—or if there out their innocent but servile subjects to be a suspension of the sitting, enabling the battle, and then after an immense waste of speech-weary deputies to rush to the tavern blood and treasure, are glad to make the vited to a ball there, and confided to me she had no stockings to appear in, and without them her presence at the ball was out of the

"That was a hint for you to buy the stock-

"No; you're out," said Growling. "She knew that I was as poor as herself; but though she could not rely on my purse, she had every confidence in my taste and judg-Now what do you think it was?"

"To go in cotton, I suppose," returned

"Out again, sir-you'd never guess it; and only a woman could have hit on the expedient. It was the fashion in those days for ladies in full dress to wear pink stockings, and she proposed painting her legs!"

"Painting her legs," they all exclaimed.

"And was it?" asked Durfy. "Don't be in a hurry, Tom. I complied on one condition, namely—that I should be

"Oh, you old rascal!" said Dick. "A capital bargain," said Tom Durfy. "But not a safe covenant," added the at-

"Don't interrupt me, gentlemen," said the doctor. "I got some rose pink accordingly, and I defy all the hosiers in Nottingham to make a tighter fit than I did on little Jenny;

"And she went to the ball," said Dick.

"And the trick succeeded," answered

you are dancing, hadn't you better let me

served to any time most convenient for distillation, or may be imported for that purpose. The process of salting roses is to "What's that to you Donald? I'll look take one and a half lbs. of the leaves or of salt and rub them together a few minu-

it has been earned; a man should be sus-