

William Glover, door keeper to the Senate, people, cannot but produce great effect up- the origin of the custom. Among the Ro- crown and footstool. This last evening, the per diem of a door keeper for services on the public mind, and contribute to dis- mans, it will be recollected, the laurel was the merry-making is prolonged. Instead rendered. Agreed to.

ing Committees.

By Mr. Harbine—to provide for quarter-tion, and also that no Convention for re- receipt of said resolutions.

branch of the Legislature. bail may be allowed or refused at the dis- tion. Severally referred. Attorney General to the Governor and Se- for want of a quorum. pleasure of the Governor, and vacancies in day of January, and close by the 20th box. Anciently, in the feudal hall, the great looked for, so cherished, so joyous, so noisy, 3 cents, when prepaid, and 5 cents when the richest and purest lumps and then pass-

Mr. Brown moved to take up the report year to some white persons.

til the 1st of January.

ject. Aster some surther remarks by Mess. interserence of the Legislature.

21 years of age."

Mr. Bowie moved to insert "of 21 years The Convention adjourned. of age and upwarde, and"-which was a-

Mr. Brown proposed surther to amend acting any business, adjourned, under presaid section, by striking out in the second vious resolution, to the 31st inst. ine, the words "for thirty days."

Upon this motion a debate arose, which was participated in by Messrs. Brown, Dorsey, Brent of Baltimore, and without coming to a vote, the Convention adjourned.

Dec. 16, 1850. Mr. Brown submitted an order, that no member or officer receive any compensation during the recesss. On motion of Mr. Bowie, laid on the table.

Mr. Brown called for the yeas and nays, but ten members did not second the call. Mr. Brent, of Baltimore, presented a certificate and an affidavit of Konig, Knaff, and offer you the congratulations of the ho- rozai,) 1842. Welsh, Morgan, Clark and others, whose liday season. Fit occasion is the annivertion, presented on Thursday last by Mr. our sin-stricken world for expressions of this amendment.

Elective Franchise.

zen of the United States for thirty days," So to you, a merry Christmas!

On motion of Mr. Bowie, the Convention adjourned.

President of the United States, and the Secretary of the United States, acknowledging "Friends and relations, with fond salutations, the receipt of the resolutions of the Conven- And warm gratulations, together appear, tion, in regard to the adjustment measures While lovers and misses, with holyday kisses, passed at the last session of Congress. WASHINGTON, Dec. 14, 1850. My Dear Sir :- I have the honor to ac-

Resolutions "on the late acts of Congress forming the compromise," &c, adopted by the Maryland Reform Convention, which you forwarded to me, and beg leave to exed by the Convention that I will faithfully perform my duty in the present crisis; and I am gratified with the assurance of the cooperation of the people of Maryland, in any emergency which may require it, in support of the laws and Constitution of our country. Truly yours, MILLARD FILLMORE.

Hon. J. G. Chapman, President of Con-

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

MARYLAND REFORM CONVENTION. you. The voice of the State of Maryland, pleased with the custom of decorating houses on this famous Eve, ninty nine in a hundred South Carolina Legislature.—The posed and referred to the appropriate Stand- ate the union of the States. I am, sir, with that we have taken up the custom of deco- they wait for the stroke of midnight; this great respect, your obedient servant.

DANIEL WEBSTER. ly sessions of the courts of common law in Mr. Spencer moved to print 1,000 copies "peace on earth and good will to men," and nutes or a quarter of an hour, the bells callthe several counties, Howard District and of said communications, when it was ascer- the victory gained over the powers of dark- ing the faithful with a triple-bob-major; if not, at a time to be fixed upon by a ma- American weekly press as the stars are tained there was no quorum present.

the Attorney General to be removable at the Legislature, to commence on first Mon- offences. Hence our modern Christmas, so long tion of letter postage to a uniform rate of unworked literary placers, bring up only il cases to allow less than the whole to gave spirit to the feast, and to the chanting church has made the devout caters feel some pers out of the State, half a cent within the Mr. Blackistone moved to lay it over un- render a verdict. To confer upon the May- of the Christmas carol. But modern times little shafts of the sharp and biting north State, and 2 mills within thirty miles of the prospectus, which, we trust, everybody or and City Council of Baltimore jurisdic- have substituted the turkey for the boar's wind. Resignon then goes on merrily-Messrs. Blackistone and Dorsev were for tion in local cases, such as the regulation head,—in truth an uncouth dish for modern sometimes far in the morning hours; but ana, was in favor of 2 cents beyond the Messrs. Morris and Willis, and secure the laying it over. Messrs. Brown, Sollers and of the police, opening streets, collecting ladies,—and perhaps a drop of wine in place nevertheless, gradually throats grow hoarse; State, 1 within the State, and free in the most elegant, attractive, and valuable family istone withdrew his motion, and that of Mr. demeanor, punishable by fine and imprison- we think it is now, in England, the custom, his bed, and puts with himself between the Pa, advocated with great force the transment, for any member of Congress of this on the vigil preceding Christmas, to light sheets the material for a good sore throat, mission of newspapers free of postage with- The New York Tribune says that private Mr. Chambers, of Kent, moved to amend State, or the State Legislature, or any per- candles of a large size, with much ceremo- or a good indigestion, for the morrow.— in thirty miles of the place of publication advices from California, state that many of the 1st article, by inserting after the word son holding an office of trust or profit in ny, to lay a log on the fire, called the yule- Previous to this, care has been taken to or in the Congressional district. "person" in the 1st line, the words "above this State, to act as agent in prosecuting any log, which was lit with the brand of the place in the wooden shoes, of the children, claim before the Legislature.

The Convention met, and without trans-

THE TIMES.

PORT TOBACCO, MD.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 25, 1850. songs.

CHRISTMAS. side on this festival morning, kind patron, gnons de Bernard de la Monnoye (Gui Ba-will give some idea as to how Christmas was observed in the "good old times:"

The President laid before the Convention The Christmas log to the firing, the following communications from the While my good dame, she bids ye all be free, And drink to your heart's desiring."

Greet merry Christmas and happy New-Year."

and strange as it may seem from this fact, of supper, admoninishing divers appetites; week, addressed an important message to all learning and research have failed to show and groups as numerous as possible are the Legislature of that State, on the great whether it is or not the day of the Nativi- formed to take together this comfortable subject which now agitates the Union. He demand the "pound of flesh" from his Register, 4 years old next spring. ty. But this fact, to our mind, instead of evening repast. The supper finished, a cir- alludes to the law lately passed by the Le- debtor. press the high gratification which I derived from their perusal. I trust that my future lessening the interest of the occasion, increases it by its peculiar unison with the ranged and set in order this evening after gislature of Vermont, which virtually and Printer's Banquet.—The Printers of conduct will justify the confidence express- mysteries of our religion and of that Being a peculiar fashion, and which at a late hour nuls the law of Congress in relation to the New York city are to celebrate the annifrom before whom the veil is not raised to of the night is to become the object of spereclamation of fugitive slaves as at once an versary of the birth of Franklin, on the 17th ATTORNEY AT LAW, AND SOLICITOR IN man. Among the New England descendants cial interest to the children. On the burn- injury and an insult to the South, but hails of January, in grand style. of the Puritans, Christmas is not so much ing brands an enormous log has been placed. the resolutions passed by the Conventions In order to give every possible effect to observed as in other States, nor in them to such an extent as in Europe. In most ture, but it changes its name during this of Maryland and Indiana, as omens leading the celebration, Mr. Niblo's spacious buildings, including the Opera House, assembly days that intervene between the Nativity "Look you," they say to the children "if sions now pervading the confederacy, may room, parlors and saloon, and all the varigomery, Charles, St. Mary's, the High Court of and the Epiphany are celebrated with mirth you are good this evening, Noel (for with speedily pass away. He recommends the tablishment, have been engaged. The pubsecute claims before the various Departments at and feastings and revellings, however little children one must always personify,) will holding of a National Convention in Ballic literary exercise will be held in the Washington. J. G. Chapman, Esq., President of the Convention to revise the Constitution of considered both in the light of a holy comkeeping as quiet as their turbulent little namay bring to an end all sectional controby the officers of the society, speakers and the invited quests comprise vention to revise the Constitution of memmoration, and a cheerful season of mer- tures will permit! The groups of older versies on the subject of slavery. ry-making, and marked as much by devo- persons not always as orderly as the chiltion as joviality and hospitality. In those dren, seize this good opportunity to surren-Wasington, 14th Dec. 1850. days known as the "good old times," der themselves with merry hearts and bois-, Sir: I have the pleasure to acknowledge just when these times were has not been terous voices to the chanted worship of the the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., decided—there were many peculiar ceremiraculous Noel. For this final solemnity, vention of the Episcopal Church in the U. on the occasion, having been in his early enclosing a report and resolutions, unani-monies associated with the celebration of they have kept the most powerful, the most States of America, intimating that the expres- days, connected with types. mously adopted by the Maryland Reform the Christmas holidays which have fallen enthusiastic, the most electrifying carols. sion of the full concurrence of the American MR. Webster's Wines.—The secret of Convention, in relation to the measures of into desuetude, but which have left their Compromise passed by the Congress of the traces on the present. For example, those sounds on all sides! It seasons every sauce, wines, at Boston, it is said, lies in his hav-United States at its last session, for the trans- who have spent the day in any of our larger it is served up with every course. Of the would be of the highest service "in a conmission of which I am greatly obliged to towns or cities, cannot fail to have been thousands of the canticles which are heard test with heresy or indifference."

countenance agitations, to produce reconcili- at once the emblem of joy, peace, and vic- of retiring at ten or eleven o'clock, as is ting our houses with laurel on the anniver- word sufficiently praclaims to what ceremosary of the Nativity, as the emblem of that ny they are going to repair. For ten miness, which were sung by the angels over and each one, furnished with a little taper jority of the House. There were only above the city lamps. The exquisite, By Mr. Eccleston—for the re-enactment Also, a communication from Gov. John- the fields of Bethlahem. Other evergreens streaking with various colors (the Christ- twelve nays, some of whom preferred im- versatile and inexhaustible genius of N. P. of the 59th article of the present Constitu- ston of Pennsylvania, acknowledging the beside the laurel were afterwards added.— mas candle,) goes through the crowded medite action. These bills had a first read- Willis, and the perfect taste, sound experi-Another custom is the bestowal of presents. streets, where the lanterns are dancing like ing in the Senate immediately, which also ence, and admirable judgment of George P. organizing the Constitution shall be called, Also, communications from the Gover- Every child expects to wake in the morn- Wil-o'-the-Wisps, at the impatient summons concurred. Large appropriations are to be Morris, are exclusively devoted to enriching except by a vote of two-thirds of each nors of Ohio, Rhode Island and New Jersey, ing and find its little box mysteriously filled of the manifold chimes. It is the midnight made for the State defence. in regard to the School System of said State. by good Saint Nicholas, who has come in mass. Once inside the church, they hear By Mr. Tuck—in application for bail, Also, reports from the sundry State offi- at the chimney top. In olden times the with more or less piety the mass, emblem- Senator to-day by a very large majority brilliant group of contributors, both men and where the accused resides out of the State, cers, in obedience to orders of the Conven- Christmas box was placed in a position to atic of the coming Messiah. Then in tureceive contributions of money, which went mult and great haste they return homeward, cretion of the officer to whom application The following orders of inquiry were to the priest for masses to be said for the always in numerous groups; they salute may be made. To give the appointment of proposed, but no vote was taken upon them sins of the people. Servants were also al- the Yule-log; they pay homage to the lowed to collect money in this manner, to hearth; they sit down at table; and, amid under discussion in the House. nate, and the deputies to the Legislature- By Mr. Sprigg-for annual sessions of pay for paternosters to wipe out their little songs which reverberate louder than ever, feature of the Christmas supper was the and which it has been thought fit to call, not prepaid, and for every newspaper of ing on to others—leaving the scrapping, Governor until the next meeting of the By Mr. Weems—to oblige free negroes boar's head soused, which was carried to we hardly know why, Rosignon. The supand mulattoes to hire themselves by the the table in grand state and with much cere- per eaten at nightfall is no impediment, as where published 1 cent, and within the to those who come after. mony. And the et-ceteras of the feast were you may imagine, to the appetite's return- State, half a cent. made yesterday from the Committee on E- By Mr. Presstman—in jury trials in civ- to match, the wassil-bowl circulated, and ing; above all, if the going to and from Mr. Sackett proposed 1 cent for newspa- ent attractive features of the new volume, Tuck favored action at once upon this sub- taxes for city purposes, &c., without the of the huge bowl. The second line we stomachs are filled, the Yule log burns out county where published. have quoted at the head of this article may and at last the hour arrives, when each one, Mr. Thompson, of Pa., Mr. Taylor, of Day Book. Jenifer and Chambers, of Kent, Mr. Black- By Mr. Davis-Declaring it a high mis- be enigmatical to some. It was once, and as best he may, regains his domicile and Ohio, Mr. Bissel, of Ill., and Mr. Carey, of yule-log of the year before. Irving has the sugar plums, which shall be for them, tion so early and zealously entered upon. California, so as to introduce African slaveother Christmas sports in England. "The Christmas log."

sing, and rola, an interjection of joy,) says is thus defined.

in Burgundy is from M. Fertiault's Coup end of the log, and the children come and the stalks, and over-feeding in the absence ket has been 35a40 cents, as in quality, and we We are happy to visit your cheerful fire- to the Paris edition of Les Noels Bourgui- the great log has borne them." d'æil sur les Noels en Bourgogne, prefixed pick them up, believing in good faith that of water.

"Every year, at the approach of Advent, names were attached to the Reubenite peti- sary of the advent of the Son of God into people refresh their memories, clear their a series of treatises, by "Moses," the first of base forgery.

Ege, setting forth that said petition was a joy and gladness by the whole human famiinvariable and eternal theme is the coming subject of Government and the Constitution, thered from its pages; but its main object hads. good common Maryland refused to sell the Mr. Johnson presented a petition of 93 ly. How every heart should bound with voters of Urbana, Frederick county, that delight and the inspirations of hope while pamphlets, little collections begrimed with we hope, will deter no one from giving them the free colored population of the State.— "God manifested in the flesh" and the in the free colored population of the State.— "God manifested in the flesh," and the in- and as soon as the first Sunday of advent On motion of Mr. Jeniser, an inquiry was numerable blessings thereby secured to all! sounds, they gossip, they gad about, they We seel indebted to Hon. Thomas G directed into the expediency of preserving Innocent pleasures at the fireside, in the so- sit toghether by the fireside sometimes at PRATT for a copy of the first part of the Pain the new Constitution the relation of mas- cial circle, at home or among friends, are one house, sometimes at another, taking tent Office Report for 1849-50. ter and slave, as recognized in the present commendable, and delightful to be indulged ing with one common voice the grotesque in the present commendable, and delightful to be indulged ing with one common voice the grotesque The Convention resumed the considera- in by the aged and youthful in all conditions praises of little Jesus. There are few villation of the report of the Committee on the of life. But it is proper to acknowledge ges even, which at this epoch,—during all recommended, by a writter in the Baltimore Now is the time to subscribe. blessings with at least a degree of suitable- the evenings of Advent, do not hear some Sun, to the friends of Public Schools thro'-The question being upon the amendment offered by Mr. Brown, to strike out in the 2d line of the 1st section, the words "for development of the Constant of the Giver and the blessings of these curious canticles shouted in their streets to the nasal sound of the bagpipes. Annapolis on Monday the 6th of January, and the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Bremen and Holland out the State, to assemble in Convention at stocks in Br 2d line of the 1st section, the words "for drunkenness or dissipation do (if not forcement to the singers at the fireside; he of Public School Education, to be submitted Clipper:— Messrs. Brent, of Baltimore, Dorsey and intended) insult the Good Being and dis- brings and adds his dose of joy (spontane- to the members of the State Reform Con-Presstman addressed the Convention on play gross ignorance of his character and ous or mercenary, it matters little which,) vention. This is a matter of great imporhis designs concerning mankind. We trust to the joy which breathes around the hearth- tance, and it is hoped that the different Mr. Stewart, of Baltimore, moved to strike you will be, kind patron, among those who out in the 1st section, 1st and 2d lines, these words-"who shall have been a citi- enjoy the occasion in a rational manner. There, it is not the purity of the notes which perpetuity of our glorious and free institumakes the concert, but the quantity, -non tions except in the education and full deand insert "who shall be a citizen of the The following extracts, which may not qualitas sed quantitas; then, (to finish at velopement of the physical, moral and intel-United States." The President decided be uninteresting to our readers at this time, has at length been born in the manger, and We understand that Annapolis Division has at length been born in the manger, and We understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the manger, and we understand that Annapolis Division when the saviour of the saviour of the manger of the saviour of the s tic piper makes his round among the houses, the use of their Hall as a place of meeting. and moreover, gives him a small coin, the Md. Republican. price of the shrill notes with which he has enlivened the evening entertainment. "More or less, until Christmas Eve, all goes on in this way among our devout singers, with the difference of some gallons of Convention. There should be no hesitation wine or some hundreds of chestnuts. But about it, the object is too important and the this famous Eve once come, the scale is time too short to admit of delay. The observance of the 25th of December pitched on a higher key; the closing evenas the Nativity or birth-day of our Saviour, ing must be a memorable one. The toilet knowledge the receipt of the Report and is an ancient custom, and a very general one, is begun at nightfall; then comes the hour countries among christians the whole twelve evening, it is called the Suche (the Yule-log, to the hope, that the bitterness and dissen- ings, including the Opera House, assembly Arundel, Calvert, Prince George's, Mont-In the earlier times of this festival it was night." And the children sit demurely, timore, in May next to take such action as Opera House. The stage will be occupied the well-known hymn sung by the shepherds, Burgundy is called, on this account, lai Su- public interest demand the immunities pro- form throughout the week, with sales of good to was the earliest Christmas carol." In oth- che de Noel. Then the father of the fami- posed in its favor.-Howard Gazette. er times bishops were accustomed to sing ly, particularly among the middle classes, these canticles to the priests. In 1521 a sings solemnly Christmas Carols with his Several farmers of Carroll county have Corn.—To-day sales of both kinds are generally a set of these canticles were printed.— wife and children, the smallest of whom he recently lost a number of cattle, amounting being made at 53 cents, with an occasional parcel They were then festal rather than religious sends in the corner to pray that the Yule- to between 50 and 60, supposed to have of white at 54 cents. Of old corn there is little log may bear him sugar plums. Meanwhile been caused from turning the cattle into or none in market. The following description of Christmas little parcels of them are placed under each fields where the corn had been husked on Oats.—For some days past the range of the mar-

On our first page we give the second of throats, and begin preluding, in the long which appeared on the 4th instant. The

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION .- It has been he beautiful Christmas Eve is past, the rus- No. 10, S. of T. have unanimously tendered ty send on a delegation. Charles is inte- ance of the debtor, when he shall find him: his 70th year. rested, and should be represented in this

The Governor of Virginia on Monday

Congress-Postage.-The only object providing for the reduction of postage, now

Christmas carol," (derived from cantare, to In the Glossary, the Suche, or Yule-log, al districts where published, and we trust mission of newspapers in the Congression- ry. an author before us, "is of very ancient date. "This is a huge log, which is placed on espoused the cause of the country press will that those members who have thus warmly Bishop Taylor says the Gloria in Excelsis, the fire on Christmas Eve, and which in not slacken their efforts, for justice and the GRAIN.—Wheat.—Prices have been pretty uni-

American Phrenological Journal .- The market is very dull, the stocks being extremely January No. of this interesting monthly pe- small, and no vessels loading. Except for parcels of Ground Leaf, of which the supply is rather betriodical has been received at our office. ter than usual for this time of year, there is no The change from an octavo to a quarto form demand for Maryland Tobacco. Shippers purwe think a decided improvement. There at $6.50a8. We quote as before, viz: is to advocate and illustrate the science of whole at a fraction under $7 round.

ful and valuable periodical, the January No. hhds. to the same period last year.

of which we have upon our table. per year, by addressing (post-paid) Fowstocks in Bremen and Holland at the beginning of the next year will be about 8,000 hhcs. less than appeal case, Judge Purviance decided as fol- GARDINER, on the 3d inst., Mrs. ANN P. GAR. lows-A Constable had a precept against a DINER, in the 68th year of her age. debtor and served it on him, taking a rule. Go ask the poor and needy around her if she and permitting the debtor to go as usual .- possessed that best of virtues, Charity? and let Four days before the return day of the writ, those upon whom the sun of prosperity is shining the debtor was taken sick and died, and the follow her example and their hour of death may be Constable returned the warrant "Cepi Mor- as peaceful as hers. Let the sorrow of her children tuus est." The Court, however, decided speak of her affection and excellence as a mother, that the creditor could recover against the officer, as he was bound to have the body of the debtor before the Magistrate on the hope of a blessed immortality. trial day. The law specifies that the officer Died, suddenly, in Baltimore city, on the 19th Let the friends of Education in our coun-shall take bond and security for the appear-inst., Capt. JAMES HOLLIS, of this county, in otherwise if he do not appear, the officer is liable on his bond. This decision will wake up many officers who seem to think that they are secured if they meet a debtor and get his rule on a case, no matter whether he appears or not." This may be law, but we have no hesi- mules, a large and fine BROOD MARE, lation in saying, that the creditor who would 7 years old, which took the premium at the under such eineumstances, default a Consta- Charles County Agricultural Show in 1849. ble, would, like Shylock, the avaricious Jew, Also a promising thoroughbred FILLY, by reporters, and the invited guests, comprising distinguished authors and editors, prominent publishers, and influential members DR. Pusey, and some of his associates, of the typographical profession. Judge Ed-ing been elected an honorary member of a in bleached large size sacks.

temperance society.

Dec. 10, 1850. WM. BOSWELL & CO.

Annapolis, Dec. 14, 1850. expressed by so numerous and respectable and churches, in fact almost everything, with begin and end with this word; which is, Washington Southern Press contains the The prospectus of the new volume of this Mr. Grason submitted an order allowing a Convention, so recently chosen by the evergreens, but a majority may not know one may say, their Alpha and Omega, their following dispatch, dated Dec. 18: paper has been published for some days The House passed almost unanimously a past, and we now take the pleasure of edibill, first, to elect delegates to a Southern torially calling the attention of the public The following orders of inquiry were pro- ation and harmony, and thereby to perpetutory; from which it has been conjectured generally done on all the preceding evenings, Congress, by the people, in October next; to it, far and near. In every thing that 2d, to elect members to a State Convention can distinguish fancy from flummery, geniin February next, to sit on the call of the us from mediocrity, and sparkling originali-Governor, if he should deem it necessary ty from mane twaddle, the Home Journal before the next session of the Legislature; is as far superior to the great body of the the pages of the Home Journal-while R. B. Rhett has been elected U. States they have naturally drawn around them a women, to whom it is an honor to go forth in such distinguished and widely-trusted of importance before Congress is the bill companionship. A minor but particular excellence of the Home Journal is the freshness and raciness of its selection. In this weekly journal ever established in America.

SLAVERY MOVEMENT IN CALIFORNIA .the capitalists in that State are making a

BALTIMORE MARKET.

same rates to-day, with sales.

quote the same to-day.

Tobacco. - As usual at this season, the Tobacco chase Maryland Ground Leaf at 5.50a10, mostly

The inspections of the week are 396 hhds. Md.,

33 hhds. Ohio, -total 429 hhds. The total inspec The Water Cure Journal is another use- tions this year are 41,390 hhds. against 45,797 We have seen some calculations in regard to the stocks of Tobacco from which we gather the Either of the above can be had for $1 following-The average stock on hand at the warehouses in this city at the beginning of the year, for twenty years past was 13,927 hhds. For ten years lers & Wells, 131 Nassau Street, New York. past, 17,831 hhds., and for five years past 25,510 hhds. The stock on hand at the beginning of the coming year will not exceed 9,500 hhds. The

"In the County Court in the trial of an Died, at the residence of her son, T. ELZARE

OBITUARY.

and let a well spent and religious life give a certain

FOR SALE. THE subscriber wishing to reduce his stock of Horses, with a view to purchasing Mules, offers for sale, or in trade for J. F. NEALE. Dec. 25, 1850-51.

Office, Church Street, Annapolis, Md.,

CHANCERY,

1711LL practice in the County Courts of Anne REFERENCES.

Hon. J. G. Chapman, of Charles Co. " Alex'r. Randall, of A. A.

" J. M. S. Causin, " " Dr. J. Higgins, S. C. " " Mr. J. J. Speed, of Baltimore City " G. L. Dulaney, " "

Rev. T. P. Hammond, Upper Marlboro' G. W. Wilson, Esq., "

Rev. W. Pinkney, Bladensburg Rev. J. Decker,