KNOW-NOTHINGISM IN CONGRESS.

of the triumphs of that despised and ablification party of 1832 sought no subterage proportion of our importations, for each upon to act he can act intelligently. There that several ladies have each contracted chose to say it originated in Massachusette. friends; and ready to perish for the right. Delaware to Maryland. He wondered poli- answer by a monosylable. [Sensation.] ticians did not take a lesson from these great American demonstrations.

of the States. If he knew anything, they was amended and passed. took on the Southern fenatic and the Northern abolitionist in the same unfavorable light; and would place them side by side, and hang them high as Haman. Fanatics of both sectione, if not in point of law, are in fect guilty of moral treason. In the event of a struggle between the North and South, Maryland would become a Marathon, and the Chesapeake Bay the straits of Thermopylæ. Who ever heard of a fanatic in Maryland? She The article written by "Z" was received ment to the Holy Catholic Church. New Winchester, a distance of about twenty miles Union: [Applause, which the Chairman of the Straight across the country, on the top of the faithful, and new multitudes were to the snow, the fences being invisible. This the Committee checked.] Resuming, Mr. omit to publish original contributions be. flock from the paths of error into the great Sollers said they leave slavery where the cause they are so badly written that we can- highway of God's truth. Constitution placed it; and, he repeated—the not read them without too much trouble. Know-Nothings are for the Union and the Our correspondents would oblige us, if on the other. As Messrs. Barry and Keitt had told the page do not write on the back of it. House what Know-Nothings will do he ing through only one. [Laughter.] They do not intend to permit Southern

Mr. Keitt. I have a single question to mittee to prepare business, the delegates at the end of the year.

Mr. Solliere. I expected to be interrupted. Sensation.

Carolina and disclaim any such thing. He lowing: then proceeded further to defend Know-Nothingism; and, as to secrecy, said: Democrate ought not to complain as they last night held a caucus or secret meeting to regulate a great tariff question.

lers to say, Know-Nothings will leave sla- dren of those who are dead; that similar pants to close, and the names of those who struction of the gentleman from Ohio as dows and children of the deceased. Constitutional law. [Laughter.] Mr. Giddings. Then you back out.

fully retire from such a contest. [Laugh- and orphans; that Congress ought to extend ter.] I should as soon think of entering the same pension system to the soldiers of to secure his election. into a contest, (God forgive me,) with a 1812 and their widows and children that pregnant woman. [Renewed merriment.] they did to those of the Revolution; and ing the question of the gentleman from Mary- move in this matter. land, but the gentleman showed the white feathers and backed out. He was deserving right to know the principles of the party .-Publicity is for the express purpose of pre-

Mr. Giddings. I did not know of Know-Nothings in Michigan.

Mr. Stuart. Was not every candidate on Journal states that coin, which has been the State and Congressional ticket put in selling in that county from $5 50 to $4 75 Russian Bear, you will find no weapon effimole of the head, by a rat, during the temgenerally to give them a call. Their terms are for $10. Letters must be addressed to toriously known in Michigan as Know No. a barrel, is now freely offered at $4 to $4 cient unless you also employ a Pole.— porary absence of the mother, that it died cash, or a credit of six months to punctual customthings?

Mr. Giddings. I did address an intelli-

-that wretched, deceitful party, which was there to foster midnight conspiracy, and, of the Treasury also tells us that in our last very strong ground against free banks, and are those who complain sometimes of the bills at the dry goods stores varying from was not worthy of the confidence of the when denounced, offering himself as a financial year we imported thirty-three mil-American people—which seeks to violate Know-Nothing in the Senate, We offered lions worth of silks. These facts need no duty to an outraged people if it fails to adopt own part, we rejoice in them. They indicate the Constitution, and overthrow the Govern- to fight the Government principle in open comment. ment, as its opponents charged. The gen- day; the Government brought out its stars theman from South Carolina (Mr. Keitt) ob- and stripes, but the sons of Carolina were jected to Nnow-Nothingism because he under their palmetto flag in desence of their

Lexington, are in Massachusetts; and the de- give their blood when their country demands the presence of the Cardinals and Princes of half the paper circulation of the State. scendents of those who there fought will not it. But, if in peace the government strikes the Church, declared it an Article of Divine forget the foreigners who battled against at our liberties, by Heaven I'll strike back! Faith that the mother of God, our most blessthe Jerseys, Pennsylvania, New York and ment-when anything personal is said I shall men in the House had thought of the pend- haste to this city of God, which is made glad to read and write the English language. So far from interfering with State rights, ing bill since the discussion commenced. by the torrent of a river flowing from the livas charged by Mr. Keitt, he said the Know- It was to relieve purchasers and locators of ing fountain of waters. * * Nothings are for preserving, strictly, the swamp and overflowed lands. He confined rights of the States and preserving the union himself to the subject, and finally the bill

The House then adjourned.

THE TIMES.

PORT TOBACCO, MD.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 11, 1855.

whole Union, against secessionists on one side, and for slavery men and abolitionists in future they would not write on both sides

Another thing they will not say that appropriations for rivers and harbors are con-

are not to blame. nullifiers to assert the doctrine of secession The Convention of Soldiers of 1812, that large numbers of men are being enroll Egypt down to the narratives of Boccacip.

may know how to get up an inexpensive with the convention of the convention after submitting to the Supreme Court for met in Washington on Monday last, the an- ed by Col. Kinney's recruiting agents, for De Foe, or Moltke, fall short of individual hot-bed, we will point out a cheap plan to upward. We quote as before, decisions regarding the constitutionality of important questions. They do not intend to quibble about the interpretation of the local solutions and the local solutions are respectively and the interpretation of the local solutions. They do not intend to quibble about the interpretation of the local solutions. They do not intend an hour's walk in Balaklava. In spite of all that the glass may be very advantageously that the glass may be very advant formed a procession and marched along the Mr. Keitt. Do you mean to be personal. Avenue, and paid their respects to the President at his mansion. Among the resolutions Mr. Sollere. I was talking about South adopted by the Convention, were the fol-

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to memorialize Congress to make to each officer, soldier, sailor and marine who serv-Mr. Sollers. I will never take the con- also to prisoners in Tripoli, and to the wi-timely death of brethren in arms, we pledge tavern-keepers, and received from them aid Mr. Sollers. I do not. But I most cheerourselves to aid and protect their widows and comfort that helped in no small degree all I can observe, these men die without the

It is stated that the Hon. Sam. Houston and Nebraska, are their names. the name of a Know-Nothing or say-noth- has resigned his seat in the U.S. Senate, to venting the people from being deceived and up addressed to the Massachusetts Senate In Bangor, a respectable and beautiful young 1-2 degrees. Ten of the months are warmmisled. He, (Mr. Giddings,) however, was and House, urging the passage of the law: lady went into a daguerreotype saloon, and er at Sevastopol than at New York, and the a friend of the Know-Nothings. He had "That any person who engages in arresting, got her picture. The artist being pleased cold months are on the average six degrees." courted their friendship and liked them as holding, or returning a fugitive slave, either with the impression made upon the plate, warmer than here. The average of the whole long as they acted with him. [Laughter.] as United States Judge, Commissioner, Mar- attempted to take another from the lips of year is three and a half degrees warmer than I Mr. Berksdele. Did not the Know-No- shal, Deputy Marshal, or in any capacity the girl. She resisted. The attempt was here. These facts are gathered from an authings and the Anti-Nebraskaites unite in whatsoever, or even as a private citizen; renewed. The next day the father of the thentic report made to the French Governshall be forever incapable of acting as a Ju- girl went into the saloon and impressed his ment. Mr. Giddings. I did not know of a Know- tor in any Court of this State, or of holding fist solidly upon the face of the artist. Ar-Nothing or a Know-Nothing Lodge in that any office of trust, honor, or emolument, tist sued; popular verdict : served him right. State at the time of the election. If they whether such office be a State, County, City voted for me I take it for granted they knew or Town office, unless relieved from such A BRITISH DRAGOON'S IDEA OF PLUCK. disgrace by a pardon; and also to punish by The Daily News correspondent in the Cri-Mr. Stuart, of Michigan. Did not the fine and imprisonment any claimant of an mea overheard a conversation between two gentleman honor Michigan with a visit. In alleged slave or any aider or abettor of such heavy dragoons, respecting the "pluck" r other words; did not a delegate do so? Had claimant who shall attempt to remove such an officer. One of them ventured to assert slavery or freedom."

PRICE OF CORN.—The Rockville (Md.) dodging a cannon-ball."

On Thursday quite a spicy debate took gent audience in Michigan on the principle As an evidence of what has led to foreign sage to the Legislature of that State, recom- AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.—The Washington peror of Japan's bedstead is superbly carved purchasers of and locators of swamp and said, as to nullification it had been illusto each inhabitant. In 1854 the population are wont to be considered. He condemns he shares its benefits he is bound to do his climate, is the consummation of bliss to reoverflowed lands, when the subject turned trated and expounded by the great intelis estimated (allowing for the increase since the passage of the Nebraska bill; and on best to continue and perpetuate it. Hence, posing listlessness. Mr. Harris, of Mississippi, was entitled to

Mr. Harris, of Missis he floor, but being indisposed, yielded his men, who swept in a convolution of splendor over the sky of South Carolina. We, man, woman and child. That is, in ten Mr. Sollers who said he wanted to speak he said fought the battle openly. The nulyears we have more than doubled the averto men and measures, so that when called embroidery store, the sum of $2,000, and of their Chief they prepare assiduously to of Burns. follow it. The reason of our great exulation at this new definition is, because the live that they might see it defined-hate predicted that this declaration would be followed by a time of great rest and advance-

Let the Catholics of America acknowledge their past tepidity of faith, and hasten to shake it off. Let us betake ourselves to cur great Patroness-Mary of immaculate conof the sheet—that is, after having written a ception. Let faith, and hope, and charity, grow strong within us, and let us remember that God has set our task before us-that of mer. - Boston Ailas. would tell what they could not do. They Some of our subscribers at Bryantown being, all of us, in our various places, miswill not dissolve the Union, but will uphold complain that they have not received the sionaries of the "Tabernacle of God with, it as the sheet anchor of Republican safety. "Times" of last Thursday. The papers were men," whose great business it is to save our own souls, and to convert this young and not describe its filth, its horrors, its dead both of necessaries, and luxuries, in the ear- coastwise shipment at 92a93 cts. for white, and tenced on Thursday last, to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

1812, at least 160 acres of land to the low- He closed all the taverns and porter houses mares for a lifetime. Mr. Giddings said he understood Mr. Sol- est grade, to extend to the widows and chil- on Sunday. The police notified the occu very where they found it. Will they restore provisions be made to those confined in forrefused to do so were taken down and reThe commonest necessaries of an hospital tacked on must be oiled. Yellow pine is ported to the Mayor. It is a little remark- are wanting; there is not the least attention the best plank to use for the purpose. able that Mayor Wood, who has accomplish- paid to decency or cleanliness-the stench Resolved. That while we deplore the un- ed this, was professedly the candidate of the is appalling—the fætid air can barely strag-

Here is a party pledged to preserve the that the thanks of this Convention are ten- rial Governments, a larger number than has comrades, who brought them on their backs dered to the members of both Houses of ever before existed, at the same time, dur-Mr. Giddings said he was sincere in ask- Congress who have had the nerve to ing our political history. Minnesota, New them. The sick appear to be tended by the Mexico, Utah, Oregon, Washington, Kansas, sick, and the dying by the dying.

man on their ticket who was not voted for having a jury trial on the question of his "plucky." "Plucky!" said the other, "Why he hasn't the pluck of a chicken, that's what he hasn't. Why, I actually seed that man rhoea.

MUCH INFORMATION IN FEW WORDS .- The Governor of Maine, in his late mes-

The Boston Telegraph is indignant that A new banner is raised on the walls of the Massachusetts militia did not take up These are sound views, and well put. It venerable clergyman of this city who detailed to us > turning home he rode from Berry's Ferry, others as well as himself. on the Shenandoah river, to his farm near the snow, the fences being invisible. This at its mouth, was frozen over.

to the town of Balaklava itself, words can- nish to one's family supplies of vegetables, els at market, nearly all of which was taken for situtional when the former pass through time, but were missent, through mistake of born, for love of it and us, of the immact-All the pictures ever drawn of plague and a degree of gladness and jov, which is above THE KINNEY EXPEDITION.—It is stated pestilence, from the work of the inspired all price in the estimation of a good man. elected President. After appointing a com- six hundred and forty acres of land and $300 every lane and street a cloacu, and the forms found on trial to be a very efficient conduction. The inspections of the week comprise 127 hhds.

Maryland, 15 hhds. Ohio—total 142 hhds. of human suffering which meet the eye at tor of light and heat. every turn, and once were wont to shock For most families a hot-bed 12 feet long SENTENCED -Wm. H. Martin, convicted us, have now made us callous, and have the width of the border will answer. The Grain. Wheat is scarce and in demand. We in U. S. District Court, of purloining letters ceased even to attract passing attention.— border should have a warm southern expo quote red at 200a112 cts; white 105a225 cts. Raise up the piece of matting or coarse rug sure. Such a frame can be made by any Corn—but little, if any, in market and badly which hangs across the doorway of some person who can nail planks together. The wanted. We quote Corn at 95 a 96 cts. miserable house, from within which you back of the frame should be twice the height hear loud wailings and cries of pain and of the front, say the back 6 feet high, the prayers to the Prophet, and you will see in front 4 feet 6 inches high. A few inches ed, however short a time, during the war of what a determined officer can accomplish. mulated woes that will serve you with night-side by side with the living, and the latter for the convenience of being raised up to least effort being made to save them. There bed; every now and again beat it down with they lie just as they were let gently down the back of the fork, continue this process There are now seven organized Territo- on the ground by the poor fellows, their

THE CLIMATE OF THE CRIMEA. -- Sevas-The people of the United States have the take effect at the end of the present session Kissen.—Pope has well exclaimed: "What north, being nearly four degrees farther being nea A BANGOR GIRL OBJECTS TO BEING topol is situated in lattitude 44 deg. 36 min. An Anti-Slavery petition has been drawn dire offence from amorous causes springs.', north than New York. The average tempersture in winter is 36 degrees, in summer 71 made, fill the space behind it with horse- next. They may otherwise by law be excluded

THE VICTIMS .- According to the London would, perhaps, be best to allow but 6 weeks Medical Circular, the campaign in the East for the growth of the plants. has, in point of sickness and mortality, been Management of the Hot-bed. - On every witty Editorials of character, and will carry cheerone of the most disastrous on record. More good day in mild weather, the sash should fulness to the gloomiest fireside. Its variety renthan ten thousand men have disappeared be raised a few inches in mid-day, to admit ders it a favorite in every family. from the ranks since the army landed in the air and graduate heat. Of nights, and in Tales, Stories, Anecdotes, Scenes and Witticisms. Crimea. Many of them are only sick, it is cold bad weather, in the day time, the hot- The "Recollections of John C. Calhoun, by his the Know-Nothings in that State a single alleged slave from the State without his first that the subject of their conversation was true, and will soon again appear on the section.

The Russians, the poor soldiers say universation was true, and will soon again appear on the section.

REMOVAL. true, and will soon again appear on the scene. bed should be covered with matting or straw. Private Secretary," will be continued in the Pick sally, are nothing to the cholers and diar-in a few hours.

prompt measures to suppress the unjust and a people jealous of their rights, and vigilant | Expectoration is a most important object to be disreputable practices of banks. The cir- in maintaining them. No spectacle is more attained in all attempts to cure diseases of the From the New York Freeman's Journal. | culation of the free banks has been reduced grand than that of a great nation engaged Chest and Lungs. The Cough which is so dis-THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF OUR by five millions of dollars and the State banks one million within the past year, the officer. The newspapers run riot at times, brane, and expectoration gives great relief.— In his (Mr. Soller's) opinion, it came from loss a member of the Secession party of has reached us that on the eighth of Decem- contraction having chiefly taken place with- the orators occasionally exaggerate, and the Guinn's Wild Cherry Pectoral possesses this dethe proper spot. Bunker Hill, Concord, and 1850. The sons of that State are ready-to ber Pope Pius IX, of immortal renown, in in the last six months. This was more than stream of discussion grows frequently a lit- sirable quality, throwing off the diseased and mortle turbid and swollen; but these are only bid matter, affording ease and comfort to the pathe slight excesses of a wise system, and tient. See advertisement. In the House of Representatives of Mas- scarcely weigh a feather against the system Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. - By its them in the contest of Liberty! This spirit I only owe allegiance to my State, and ed Lady, was conceived without original sachusetts on Monday a motion was made itself. They are never witnessed in despot-mild actions on the stomach, liver and the kidneys, isms; but we unto the republic in which will cure dyspepsia, cough, asthma, bronchial and to amend the constitution of the State, so as important elections are determined without lung affections; pains in the back, side and breast: mswer by a monosylable. [Sensation.]

Mr. Letcher said he imagined that not five

Mr. Letcher said he imagined element of "popular choice," and there can blood, and is the greatest female medicine ever be no intelligent exercise of "copular choice" known. This invaluable medicine is working won-> our selvation. It is set up by a strong hand, with its recommendation, and refuse to re- follows that no man has a moral right to the particulars of a most remarkable cure effected by this medicine upon a woman who had for year and one that cannot fail. When the soldiers see a new standard advanced by the orders ceive the pay for services in the rendition cast his vote through caprice or whim; but been sorely afflicted with a scrofulous affection should, to the best of his ability, act as impartially and conscientiously as a judge in prove beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in A DEEP Snow.—The Winchester Vir- the trial of a cause. Every man is respon- Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, which can be found saints and the holy ones of past ages, who makes that Gen. Smith, the delegate sible to his conscience, and morally responsible to the community for the manner in Argus. '90, has often been heard to sav, that in re- which he shall exercise a right which affects was the winter when the Chesapeake Bay, already, supply that deficiency at once, by but there were no buyers at over $8 75. City having one made, the cost is triffing, while Mills Flour was held at the same figure as Howthe advantages of having one or more are SIXTY YEARS AGO. - On Christmas D.v., immen-e. Without a hot-bed no one can bout 5.000 bushels. The market for it was not 1794, the ship Betsy, 190 tons, was launch. have early vegetables, and surely every gen- particularly active, but prices were steady at preed in Salem, thermometer 80 degrees at noon. theman of taste should make it a point of vious quotations. Good to prime reds were sold The greater and down on the ways, and men ambition to have the earliest vegetables in at 205a210 cts., and good to prime whites at 205 and boys indulged in swimming, as in Sum- his neighborhood. Such ambition is a vir- a212 cts.

> > From the American Farmer, HOT-BEDS.

tue, and the struggles for ascendency to comforts and enjoyments of our wives and cts. per bushel.

Mayor Wood, of New York, is showing one spot and in one instant a mass of accuspace should be left behind the back for the ty, will meet at the Court House on MON insertion of horse-dung to raise the heat—a DAY the 22 instant. top or frame must be made to stretch the The dead, laid out as they died, are lying cotton cover over, to be attached by hinges jan 11-tm.

> The hot-bed can either be made on the surface, or by sinking the frame a few inches. The dung should be horse-dung, which should be turned over, shaken and well mix ed with a dung fork as being put in on the until the dung is about 4 feet in depth in the or 10 days. When the dung is put in, low- THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE. That the suber down the frame to raise the heat. When I scribers have obtained from the Orphans' Court the heat is sufficiently raised, then put on 4 of Charles county, Md., letters of Administration on or 5 inches of dry mould or earth, rake it the personal estate of Christine E. Berry, late of smooth and even, when your hot-bed will said county, deceased. All persons having claims be fit to receive any seed that you may de- exhibit the same, properly authenticated, to the sire to sow on it. When the bed is first Register of Wills, on or before the 11th day of July

Time of sowing the Seeds .- Most plants 1855. are ready to set out in from 6 to 8 weeks from the time of sowing. Keeping this fact jan 11 in mind you can very easily regulate the time of sowing vonr seeds, making the time when your locality, plants may be safely set out, the governing point as to the time of sow- THIS Illustrated Weekly, published in the city ing the seeds: As an average of time, it I of New York, every Saturday, is about to place in Committee of the Whole of the House of Representatives on the merits of I want all parties here, or elsewhere, to avow

to the store-room formerly occupied by Mr. L. the Fourth July and Christmas, without charge. CHILD KILLED BY A RAT.—An infant ne- Weeks, in front of the Court House. The room Each of these Pictorial sheets contains over 200

Note: The spicy devale took which I profess, but never heard any intimation that my hearers were Know-Nothings.

I want all parties here, or elsewhere, to avow the save the time has arrived when the case.

I want all parties here, or elsewhere, to avow the save the time has arrived when the case. Know-Nothingism. The bill under con- and proclaim their sentiments without de- the following fact:—In 1844 the population he says the time has arrived when the quesof the Union was 19,241,000: the importational and State Councils and in the primation. He has no right to neglect the dute the double purpose of keeping off the mos-Mr. Orr, of South Carolina, for the relief of marks about accession and abolitionism, mass accession and abolitionism. marks about secession and abolitionism, $96.950,000—being a trifle over five dollars freedom with which other grave questions He lives under a free government, and while delicious coolness, which, in that sultry without knowledge and without discus- ders upon the human frame. The letter which we Similar statements from like reliable authority

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, January 8, 1855. FLOUR.-The Flour market to-day has been unsettled and neither on early nor late 'Change did we hear of any sales having been made. For If you have no hot-bede in your garden Howard Street Flour holders were asking $8 87.

Corn-This morning there was a large receipt of Corn, and the demand for it was very active at which they lead, are among the most glori- an advance of 2 or 3 cts. per bushel from the fig-THE TURKS DYING BY HUNDREDS .- As ous achievements of rural life, for they fur- ures of Saturday. There were about 38,000 bush-93a95 cts. for yellow.

Oats-Sales of Maryland and Virginia at 50a53

[From the American of Saturday last.] Tobacco. The sales of Maryland this week have been very heavy for the season, comprising 250 hhds. Ground Leaf, mostly at $5a$6.

Maryland, 15 hhds. Ohio-total 142 hhds.

ty, will meet at the Court House on MON-By order, R. E. BATEMAN, Clerk.

R. L. MURDOCH,

FASHIONABLE TAILOR. Respectfully informs the citizens of Port Tobacco and vicishop next door to Messrs. J. B. Fergusson & Co.'s store, where he intends conducting the TAILORING BUSINESS. Thankful for past favors, he hopes by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.

ADMINISTRATION NOTICE. Given under our hands, this 9th day of January, JAMES O. OLIVER, EVELINE E. OLIVER, Adm'rs THE AMERICAN PICK.

FOURTH VOLUME.

commence its fourth year. It has become a favorite paper throughout the United States. Besides its Designs, by the first artists, it contains

It contains, each week, a large quantity of until finished, and then a copy will be sent free to every subscriber whose name shall be upon our mail book. Each yearly subscriber to the Pick will receive the double-sized Pictorial sheets for

JOSEPH A. SCOVILL, No. 25 Ann street, New York