IUILIUDAUUU LIMDO, AND CHARLES COUNTY ADVERTISER.

VOL. XIII.

PORT TOBACCO, (MD.) THURS!AY, DECEMBER 11, 1856.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY E. WELLS, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

tion of the last and the commencement of shoulder to shoulder as friends.

Chief Magistrate.

the President represents the aggregate popu- violence and unconstitutional action.

sanctioned and announced.

tizens of the United States as citizens, what- attempt of a portion of the States, by a sec- Thereupon this enactment ceased to have Denmark has come to an arrangement on the ever their religion, wherever their birth or tional organization and movement, to usurp binding virtue in any sense, whether as re-subject with the maritime powers of Europe, inviolability of the constitutional rights of States. and greatness of the Republic.

had they not been disguised by suggestions of nearly one-half of the thirty-one States. cited state of the public mind, induced by gression, the first was the strenuous agita- Baltimore American.]

is to be hoped transient in their influence. Congress and out of it, of the question of Administration with regard to the Kansas Perfect liberty of association for political negro emancipation in the southern States. difficulties on the ground that the imputed of honor, valor and chivalry: the Knight of The Irish Joseph speedily obtained the gift objects and the widest scope of discussion The second step in this path of evil con- irregularities in the elections there were beare the received and ordinary conditions of government in our country. Our institutions, framed in the spirit of influence in the governments, aimed to facilitate the escape themselves the guardians of their own rights is a definite solution of the Execution of the Executive, the people of the northern government de facto, and he has the Red Cross, the Banditt, Jack Sheppard, Hiawatha, Louis Fourteenth, the Old Contact of the Silver Order, the Knight of the Silver Order, the Silver Order, the Knight of the Silver Order, the Silver intelligence and integrity of the people, do of persons held to service in the southern in such respects. The present peaceful connot forbid citizens, either individually or as- States, and to prevent their extradition when dition of Kansas affords the President ground er Mr. Wheeler has been recalled or not. sociated together, to attack by writing, reclaimed according to law and in virtue of for congratulating the country, especially as speech, or any other methods short of phy- express provisions of the constitution. To it has been secured "without one drop of have serious questions pending. The first threw his gorgeous array of bold Knights young men. sical force, the constitution and the very promote this object, legislative enactments blood having been shed in its accomplish- of these grows out of a tonnage duty impos- into line and delivered to them his 'charge," Quite a laugh was raised in the Supreme existence of the Union. Under the shelter and other means were adopted to take away ment by the forces of the United States." ed upon foreign vessels coming to her ports, in a very forcible and impressive manner, Court, not long since, by an official, who, of this great liberty, and protected by the or defeat rights which the constitution sol- He adds, in this connection, the confident the second out of a tax levied upon mail infusing in their hearts that keen sense and when the judge called out for the crier to laws and usages of the government they as- emply guarantied. In order to nullify the trust that this peaceful condition will afford matter transported across the Isthmus, and elevated appreciation of honor, gallantry open the court, said: "May it please your sail, associations have been formed in some then existing act of Congress concerning the opportunity for calm reflection and wise leof the States of individuals who, pretending extradition of fugitives from service, laws gislation; that no act will be suffered to re-outrages committed at Panama in April were so remarkable. The Marshall's charge his wife is dead." to seek only to prevent the spread of the in- were enacted in many States forbidding their main in the statute book of Kansas violative last. stitution of slavery into the present or future officers, under the severest penalties, to par- of the provisions of the Constitution, and Neither of the two imports named have he then introduced the Orator of the Day inchoate States of the Union, or really in- ticipate in the execution of any act of Con- Congress will take all necessary steps to as- been enforced by New Granada, but it claims who, in a very happy and appropriate ad- man without modesty is its companion, nor institutions of existing States. To accom-plish their objects, they dedicate themselves rities of the United States and of the several contiutional rights, privileges and immu-matter transported across the Isthmus would bright gallaxy of beauty surrounding him sequent insertion. If the number of insertions be pate with them in their assaults upon the officers charged with the execution of its tert are given. The receipts from the States.

factures, navigation, and commerce, it is rival monarchies of Europe and Asia. - In this connexion it should not be forgot- occas as should occur. In view of this fact, necessary only to say that the internal pros- Well knowing that such, and such only, are ten that when France, of her own accord, and of supposed increase of revenue from President and Vice President of the United been so inflamed into the passionate con- profess"—that is to say, while it remains in or reased vigor. The execution of people. We appeal to them, by their voice ship with the avowed and active enemies of ginal States.

whomsoever they will to the high post of erty in the abstract, they do not stop to con
Chief Magistrate siderer practically how the objects they in rather than proved by the States of the Department and the Department of the In-And thus it is that the Senators represent | would attain can be accomplished, nor to re- Union. the respective States of the Union, and the flect that, even if the evil were as great as ever, for a number of years; and the peo- ation of our foreign affairs, and the country members of the House of Representatives they deem it, they have no remedy to apply, ple the respective States acquiesced in the is congratulated upon the enjoyment of amithe several constituencies of each State, so and that it can be only aggravated by their enactment of the principle as applied to cable relations with all foreign powers. lation of the United States. Their election question which is one of the most difficult of acquiese in its further application to the ter- ing out of her claim to dominion or control of him is the explicit and solemn act of the all the problems of social institution politi- ritory acquired by the United States from over certain Central American territory, is sole sovereign authority of the Union. cal economy, and statesmanship they treat Mexico. But this proposition was success- in the way of satisfactory adjustment. An It is impossible to misapprehend the great with unreasoning intemperate of thought fully resisted by the representatives from the additional treaty, removing all occasion for principles, which by their recent political and language. Extremes beget extremes, who, regardless of the sta- controversy has been concluded by our Minaction, the people of the United States have Violent attack from the North finds its in- tute line, insisted upon applying restrictions ister at London and will be immediately subevitable consequence in the growth of a spi- to the new territory generally, whether ly- mitted to the Senate. They have asserted the constitutional e- rit of angry defence at the South Thus, ing north or south of, thereby repealing it The effort to relieve our trade to the Balquality of each and all of the States of the in the progress of events we had reached as a legislative compromise, and, on the tic from the sound dues has not been attend-Union as States; they have affirmed the con- that consummation which the voice of the part of the North, persistently violating the ed with success. The dues are now paid their residence; they have maintained the the control of the government of the United spects the North or the South; and so in our negotiations may thus be resumed and the different sections of the Union; and they I confidently believe that the great body State of California and the organization of With Spain no new difficulties have arishave proclaimed their devoted and unalter- of those who inconsiderately took this fatal the Territories of New Mexico, Utah, and en, but efforts to relieve our commerce with able attachment to the Union and to the Con- step are sincerely attached to the constitu- Washington. stitution, as objects of interest superior tion and the Union. They would, upon de- | The Message after narrating the succes- for the more speedy settlement of local disto all subjects of local or sectional contro- liberation, shrink with unaffected horror sive acts of indirect aggression that have putes growing out of that commerce, have versey, as the safeguard of the rights of all, from any conscious act of disunion or civil as the spirit and essence of liberty, peace, war. But they have entered into a path established and maintained the sectional dif-

which leads nowhere, unless it be to civil ferences of the country, comes down to the maritime law, as expressed by Mr. Marcy's In doing this, they have, at the same war and disunion. and which has no other repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the reply to the declaration of the conference of time, emphatically condemned the idea of possible outlet. They have proceeded thus troubles in Kansas. This portion of the Paris is recapitulated, and the hope expressorganizing in these United States mere geofar in that direction in consequence of the graphical parties; of marshalling in hostile successive stages of their progress having Message contains nothing in the way of fact ly prevail.

Message contains nothing in the way of fact ly prevail. array towards each other the different par- consisted of a series of secondary issues, each or argument that is new, but the President The settlement of our relations with the ties of the country, North or East or West. of which professed to be confined within constant of an array towards each other the different parton states of secondary issues, each other the different parton of which professed to be confined within constant of an array towards each other the different parton of which professed to be confined within constant of an array towards each other the different parton of the country, North or East or West. of which professed to be confined within constant of an array towards each other the different parton of the country, North or East or West. of which professed to be confined within constant of the country, and the country of the co Schemes of this nature, fraught with incal- stitutional and peaceful limits, but which and thereby entitles them to a fair conside- embarrassed by their distracted condition. culable mischief, and which the considerate attempted indirectly what few men were ration even from those who may not assent Mexico has not only witheld reparation for the festivities, all went merrily, merrily, ber of the great Butler family previous to sense of the people has rejected, could have willing to do directly—that is, to act ag- to his conclusions. had countenance in no part of the country, gressively against the constitutional rights way, and of calumniating, with indiscrimi- of the republic, was destroyed; conflicts of Testory.

Fellow-citizens of the Senate, and of the the relative condition of the white and black action; and the attacks upon the constitu- moured to seventy-two million, nine hun- for the protection of this line of inter-oceanic which command, they all dashed off to their commend to the consideration of Congress that it cannot be effected by any peaceful in- controversy was in connexion with the or- hundred twenty-five thousand three hun- ture." to express personal canvictions, but as the degree of liberty, and an amount of individ- ticular views of public policy. The impo- ment bled by his position, and called upon by his no parallel in history, and substituting in its resisted. But, at the same period, the last we years, deducting amounts paid to lations between ours and all other govern- After passing several times in full view of official obligations, to scan with an impartial place hostile governments, driven at once question was presented of imposing restriction the lecican government and for the rements, and the establishment of constitution the bewitching smiles of the surrounding eye the interests of the whole, and of every and inevitably into mutual devastation and tions upon the residue of the territory ceded dempion of the public debt, has been about al order and tranquility throughout the gallaxy of beauty, he at length halted and fratricidal carnage, transforming the now by France. That question was, for the time. forty-oth millions of dollars, and the Pre- Union. Of the condition of the domestic interests peaceful and felicitous brotherhood into a disposed of by the adoption of a geographical sident hinks this average need not be exceeded a future years unless extraordinary perity of the country, its continuous and the means and consequences of their plans resolved, for considerations of the most far- the sal of public lands, he urges such are- WHEN THE HOUR OF SOLEMN VESPER. steady advancement in wealth and popula- and purposes, they endeavor to prepare the sighted sagacity, to cede Louisiana to the ductic of the revenue from customs as will tion, and in private as well as public well- people of the United States for civil war by United States, and that accession was accep- bring be aggregate revenue down to fifty being, attest the wisdom of our institutions, doing everything in their power to deprive ted by the United States, the latter express-million of dollars. The amount of reducand patriotism, which, notwithstanding oc- the constitution and laws of moral authori- ly engaged that "the inhabitants of the ce- tion and the manner of effecting it he refers casional irregularities of opinion or action ty, and to undetermine the fabric of the ded territory shall be incorporated in the to as destions of great and general interest, resulting from popular freedom, has distin- Union by appeals to passion and sectional Union of the United States, and admitted as and rews his recommendation of the reguished and characterized the people of prejudice, by indoctrinating its people with soon as possible, according to the principles vision f the revenue laws, prepared by the reciprocal hatred, and by educating them to of the federal constitution, to the enjoyment | Secretry of the Treasury, to the attention | In the brief interval between the termina- stand face to face as enemies, rather than of all the rights, advantages, and immuni- of Congress. ties of citizens of the United States; and in The condition of the Army is next conthe present session of Congress, the public It is by the agency of such unwarrantable the mean time they shall be maintained and sidere and legislation recommended to cure mind has been occupied with the care of se- interference, foreign and domestic, that the protected in the free enjoyment of their lib- defection its organization. lecting for another constitutional term, the minds of many otherwise good citizens, have erty, property, and the religion which they The condition of the Navy is stated to be demnation of the domestic institutions of the a territorial condition, its inhabitants ar the recent laws relative to it have been at-The determination of the persons, who are southern States as at length to pass insensibly maintained and protected in the free states as at length to pass insensibly maintained and protected in the free with a land the suggestions of the Secretary of the administration of the government, is, under their fellow-citizens of those States, and right the noise for the southern States as at length to pass insensibly maintained and protected in the free states, and right the noise fender of the first the most advantageous results and the suggestions of the Secretary of the secretary of the secretary of the secretary of the right the noise fender of the fender our system, committed to the States and the thus, finally, to fall into temporary fellow- on a footing of perfect equals with the ori- for an additional increase of our naval force, the State of Texas; and it was proposed to Our difficulty with Great Britain, groweffect it was treated on the occasion of the terminated satisfactorily.

For the balance we adopt the excellent upon the part of the United States. plausible in appearance, acting upon an ex- In the long series of acts of indirect ag- synopsis of the Message furnished by the causes temporary in their character, and it tion, by citizens of the northern States, in The President justifies the course of the

are concurred in and recommended to the fapstood on the statute-book, how- terior, the President passes to the consider-stitutional equality of each and all of the ci- people has now pointedly rebuked, of the compact, if compact there was. under protest, but it is believed that when

Cuba of some of its burdens, and to provide

The position of the government upon

The President does not regard our government as holding any diplomatic relations with Nicaragua. Diplomatic representatives were sent from two contending parties, is a definite solution of the question wheth- tinental, and the Unknown Knight.

With the republic of New Granada we ing arrived, the gallant Chief Marshall will soon be made for the use of bashful

BY REV. EDWARD C. JONES.

Comes with all its soothing balm,

Like a gentle-breathing Psalm;

When the Hour of Solemn Vesper

Let me hear the spirits whisper,

Quieting each passion's play,

Silencing each note of sorrow,

Giving token that the morrow

Shall be holier than to-day.

Ere I seek my couch in slumber,

Come good spirit to my soul,

Like a burden, from me roll.

Let thy silvery voice be heard,

While in dust I take my station,

Penitent where I have erred.

In the far-off dusky sky,

Let thy grace my soul enriching,

Mould my heart to Charity;

Till to Rapture chages woe,

Till to Joy is turned Affliction,

And I breathe a benediction,

Cheerfully for every foe.

As the evening folds its pinion

Over every living thing,

Turning me to resignation,

Till the cares which now encumber to the odious task of depreciating the gov- States for the maintenance of their common nits of citizens of the United States, as require the payment of more than two mil- upon all sides, entertained his hearers most constituting a square—and 25 cents for every subthroughout the country, who do not participower, to authorize the appointment of new the reasury, and some items of general inexecution will be resisted by the United spiring in all hearts a degree of valor and not marked on the advertisement it will be published until forbid, and charged accordingly. A liberal deduction will be made to those who adliberal deduction will be made to those at Panama is deemed so imliberal deduction will be made to those who adliberal deduc secured, and the blessings it has conferred, governments in a state of mutual hostility, amonted to seventy-three million, nine huninent as to make it the President's duty to of witnessing upon any similar occasion.— Communications addressed to this office must the steady support and grateful reverence of rather than fellow magistrates of a common dregard eighteen thousand, one hundred station a part of our naval force in the har- The Chief Marshall next placed himself in their children. They seek an object which country, peacefully subsisting under the pro- and or the part of the par they well know to be a revolutionary one. tection of one well-constituted Union. Thus including payment of Mexican indemnity it would be inadvisable to withdraw that with grenadier bearing, addressed his gal-They are perfectly aware that the change in here, also, aggression was followed by re- and scentific of the public debt, have a- force until some arrangement has been made lant knights thus: "Prepare to charge!" at such measures as he may judge necessary strumentality of theirs; that for them, and ganization of territorial governments, and dred in nineteen dollars, including premiand expedient, but also that he shall give the States of which they are citizens, the on- the admission of new States into the Union. um, been discharged, reducing the debt in view of the peace, greatness and felicity charges, at the termination of which, the information to them of the state of the Union. ly path to its accomplishment is through When it was proposed to admit the State of to the Union now enjoys, and with an Judges announced the victor to be the Knight To do this fully involves exposition of all burning cities, and ravaged fields, and Maine, by separation of territory from that seventhousand one hundred and twenty- averment upon the part of the President of of the Silver Cross. The victorious Knight, matters in the actual condition of the coun- slaughtered populations, and all there is of Massachusetts, and the State of Missouri, nine ollars; all which might be paid within his readiness to retire into private life, with being duly apprised of his success and the try, domestic or foreign, which essentially most terrible in foreign, complicated with formed of a portion of the territory ceded by a yea without embarrassing the public ser- sentiments of profound gratitude to the good glorious honor conferred upon him, was then concern the general welfare. While per- civil and servile war; and that the first step France to the United States, representatives vice, and only re- Providence which during the period of his and there informed by the Chief Marshall forming his constitutional duty in this re- in the attempt is the forcible disruption of in Congress objected to the admission of the deemble at the opinion of the holder, can- administration, has vouchsafed to carry the that he was entitled, from amongst this vast spect, the President does not speak merely a country embracing in its broad bosom a latter, unless with conditions suited to par- not pressed to payment by the govern- country through many difficulties, domestic assemblage of beauty, to select and crown executive minister of the government, ena- ual and public prosperity, to which there is sition of such a condition was successfully The verage annual expenditure for the the spectacle of amicable and respectful re- Beauty of this festival. and foreign, and enabled him to contemplate the lady of his choice as Queen of Love and ernment organization which stands in their institutions, which existed in the early years complated by the organic law of the lions of dollars annually on the United States satisfactorily, and retired amidst a shower For one year, if paid within six months, $1.50 nate invective, not only the citizens of par- jurisdiction came to be frequent; and Con- assing to the financial affairs of the gov- but in contravention of our treaty with that After the plaudits upon the orator's ad-ABVERTISEMENTS.—$1 per square for two insertions—12 lines of small type or 14 of large type fault, but all others of their fellow-citizens for the information of the information of the information of the constitution and the vindication of its for the information of the information of the information of the information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its for the information of the information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its

information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company. Its information to the report of the Secretary of rights of the Panama Railroad Company in all the report of the Secretary of right races in the slaveholding States, which they tion at this point did but serve to raise up dred at forty-eight thousand, seven hun-communication. In the meanwhile negotia- allotted positions, carrying with them the The Constitution requires that the Presi- would promote, is beyond their lawful au- new barriers for its defence and security. dred and new barriers for its defence and security. dred and new barriers for its defence and security. dred and new barriers for its defence and security. dent shall from time to time, not only re- thority; that to them it is a foreign object; The third stage of this unhappy sectional lie detthe sum of forty-five million five nity for the past and security for the fu- rounding fair. The order being given to dropped his spear at the foot of Miss S of old St. Mary's, who, in a few well conceived remarks, acknowledged the honor conferred, and drew from her hand her glove, which the gallant knight raised to his lips and then dashed off. The taste of this good and gallant Knight cannot be too highly complimented in the selection of his Queen, and I sincerely hope he may be as fortunate in all his selections through life. The prize was warmly contested by the knights Ivan-Order. The Knight of Ivanhoe and also the Knight of Silver Order were particularly distinguished for their elegant horsemanship. The most perfect character on the field was Hiawatha, his wreckless bearing and manly form being in perfect keeping with Longfellow's portraiture of that inimitable Child of the Forest. Altogether, it was one of the most brilliant affairs I ever

NO. 33.

Mary's must not only take her stand as the banner county of the State in the political world, but she must stand hereafter pre-eminent in the Court of Love, Beauty and Round my heart, its own dominion, mansion of our friend and fellow-citizen, Dr. Fold, my God, thy tender wing; H. H. Bean, where the ball room was Reconciled to all thy dealing, Hopeful of the future dark, Though the tempest-blast is pealing Round my little fragile bark. Though hast led me, Dove-like Spirit! Gentle Spirit, lead me still; Mine the safety, thine the merit, Till I reach the distant hill Ocean rocked, but never stranded, While I fold thee to my breast, Till, within the Heaven landed, Mine shall be unbroken rest.

Miscellaneous.

From the St. Mary's Beacon. THE TOURNAMENT.

Mr. Editor: Having had the pleasure of witnessing one of the most beautiful and deemed it not a trespass upon your columns to give you but a very brief description of St. Mary's. the festivities of that glorious occasion .-

having been finished to his gallant Knights, flamed with desire to change the domestic gress whatever. In this way that system of sure to its inhabitants the enjoyment, with- the right to enforce them at will. The tax dress, which was replete with most beauti- in that of man, unless honor is its associate.

hoe, Hiawatha, Louis Fourteenth, the Old Continental and the Knight of the Silver The Tournament being over, the assembled company all repaired to the hospitable thrown open, and the Queen of Love of the evening and her Maids of Honor, together with the chivalric Knights, led off the first quadrille. Among the reigning belles of the evening was the Queen of Beauty, whose soft and dove-like expression of eye threw a genial warmth over the entranced assemblage of the sterner sex; Miss B. of P. G's., with her dark languishing eyes and commanding figure; Miss W., of Calvert, with her pure and soul-inspiring gaze, drew all hearts around her; Miss G., of Baltimore. with her soft black eye and rosy cheeks, was irresistible. The Misses S. and B., of old St. Mary's, were none the less attractive. -We danced until a very late hour to most delightful music, and retired in perfect bliss to dream of Charlotte Hall, ruby lips, sungorgeous displays of chivalry, after the olden times, in the form of a "Tournament," held for the able and courteous manner in which and holding it in such high estimation as I trust that, as this is the commencement of a do as a glorious incentive to honor and to feat both ennobling and elevating in its tenthe achievement of gallant deeds, I have dency, it may supercede in a measure the have been better selected, and the entire ter personal rebukes from the pulpit. The past injuries but added others. Her pres- cherrily on. The following are the names his coming to the title and the estates. The of the bold and gallant knights that entered promise was not redeemed; and, on the first the field to contest for the crown of "love opportunity the curate had of preaching beand beauty," and never did nobler steeds fore the powerful nobleman, he selected for nor gallant knights prove themselves more his text the conclusion of the fortieth chapworthy the contest since women, lovely wo- ter of Genesis: "Yet did not the chief butman, has ever been our guiding star to deeds ler remember Joseph, but forgot him."- > at the Museum. It is the gun with which The hour appointed for the contest hav- the question is popped. A large supply

Love cannot exist in the heart of a wo-