December Term 1828.

its suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said John Schunck is convicted as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same lient brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said State of Maryland might have execution against the said John Schunck for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto it in the said County Court, as also for the sum of ten dollars and twelve cents for its damages costs and charges, by it sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said John Schunck before the said Court of Appeals, for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said John Schunck is convicted as of record it likewise appeareth: Therefore, now are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said John Schunck in your bailiwick being you cause to be made the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you the said sums of money before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next, to render unto the said State of Maryland the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you there and then this writ. Witness the Honorable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three. Issued the 21st day of December 1823. (WB Dorsey) Th. Harris Clk.

Which said writ of Fieri facias was thereon endorsed as follows, to wit:

"Debt twenty six thousand six hundred and sixty six dollars, sixty six and two thirds cents current money, costs ten dollars, thirteen and one third cents, Court of Appeals costs ten dollars and twelve cents, additional costs seventy six cents. To be released on payment of four thousand and fifty seven dollars and forty three cents current money with interest thereon from the fourth of May eighteen hundred and twenty until paid and the above costs.

And now at this day to wit: the said second Monday in June being the fourteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty four and the return day of the foregoing writ, comes into the Court of Appeals here the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, and the Sheriff of Baltimore county aforesaid, to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed, to wit, Sheppard & Leatherman gentleman, makes return thereof to the Court here, thus endorsed, to wit "Nulla Bona"

Test John Johnson Clk.

The State of Maryland vs John Schunck.

Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit on the twenty seventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six the State of Maryland by Thomas Kell its attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here a writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri facias to the Sheriff of Baltimore county directed in the words and figures following, to wit:

December Term 1828.

Maryland Sc. The State of Maryland, to the Sheriff of Baltimore county Greeting. Whereas at a county Court begun and held at the City of Baltimore in and for Baltimore county on the fourth Monday of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen the State of Maryland by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain John Schunck late of Baltimore county yeoman as well the sum of twenty six thousand six hundred and sixty six dollars and sixty six and two thirds cents current money a certain debt, as the sum of ten dollars and thirteen and one third cents for its damages which it had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of the said debt, as for its costs and charges by it about the same lient in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said John Schunck is convicted as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same lient brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said State of Maryland might have execution against the said John Schunck for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto it in the said County Court, as also for the sum of ten dollars and twelve cents for its damages costs and charges by it sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said John Schunck before the said Court of Appeals, for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said John Schunck is convicted as of record it likewise appeareth: Therefore upon are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said John Schunck being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid, and have you the sums of money before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next, to render unto the said State of Maryland the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you there and then this writ. Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the fifteen day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.

Issued the 27th day of December 1825. (Kell) Th. Harris Clk.

Which said writ of Fieri facias was thereon endorsed as follows, to wit:

Debt twenty six thousand six hundred and sixty six dollars, sixty six and two thirds cents current money, costs ten dollars, thirteen and one third cents, Court of Appeals costs ten dollars and twelve cents, additional costs one dollar and fifty two cents. To be released on payment of four thousand and fifty seven dollars and forty three cents, current money with interest thereon from the fourth day of May eighteen hundred and twenty until paid and the above costs.

And now at this day to wit: the said second Monday in June being the fourteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and the return day of the foregoing writ, comes into the Court of Appeals here the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid and the Sheriff of Baltimore county aforesaid, to whom the said