the county aforesaid in consideration that the said Samuel at the like instance and request of him the said William D had before that time sold and delivered to the said William one other stud horse called Farmer of him him the said Samuel, he the said William D undertook and promised to the said Samuel to pay him so much money as he therefore reasonably deserved to have for the same when he the said William D should be thereto afterwards requested, and the said Samuel in fact avers that he therefore reasonably deserved to have of the said William D another sum of ninety two pounds fourteen shillings and six pence like money whereof the said William D afterwards & there, on the same day and year aforesaid had notice. And whereas also the said William D afterwards & there on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid had notice. And whereas also the said William D afterwards & there on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid was indebted unto the said Samuel in another sum of ninety two pounds fourteen shillings and six pence current money for the like sum of current money by the said Samuel at the special instance and request and to and for the use of the said William D before that time laid out, expended and paid, and being so indebted the said William D in consideration thereof afterwards & there on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid, undertook and promised to the said Samuel to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money when he should be thereto afterwards required. And whereas also the said William D afterwards & there on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid was indebted unto the said Samuel in another sum of ninety two pounds fourteen and six pence half penny current money for the like sum of money by the said Samuel before that time lent and advanced to the said William at his special instance and request and being so indebted the said William D, in consideration thereof, afterwards & there, on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid undertook and promised to the said Samuel to pay him the last mentioned sum of money when he should be thereto afterwards required. And whereas the said William D afterwards & there on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid accounted together with the said Samuel of and concerning divers other sums of money before that time due and owing from the said William D to the said Samuel and then being in arrear and unpaid, and upon that account the said William was then and there found in arrear and indebted to the said Samuel in a large sum of money & there, on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid, in the further sum of ninety two pounds fourteen shillings and six pence half penny current money and being so found in arrear and indebted to the said Samuel, the said

William D in consideration thereof afterwards & there on the day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid undertook and promised to the said Samuel to pay him the last mentioned sum of money when he should be thereto afterwards required. Yet the said William D Harrison although often thereto requested by the said Samuel that is to say on the day and year aforesaid and often afterwards at the county aforesaid hath not yet paid the said several sums of money or any part thereof to the said Samuel but to do this he has hitherto wholly refused and still refuses. Wherefore the said Samuel says he is injured and hath sustained damage to the value of two hundred pounds current money and therefore he brings his suit and &c.

And the said William D Harrison by his attorney aforesaid defends the force and injury when &c and saith that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Samuel Chapman &c as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the said Samuel Chapman the said sum of two hundred pounds current money in manner and form aforesaid as the said Samuel Chapman above against him hath declared. Therefore it is considered by the court here that the said Samuel Chapman recover against the said William D Harrison as well the sum of two hundred pounds current money certain damages as the sum of six dollars sixteen and two thirds cents by the court here unto him the said Samuel Chapman on his account adjudged for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended. And the said William D Harrison in mercy &c.

Memorandum. Judgment rendered in this cause on this 27th day of August in the year 1810 for the sum of 200 £ current money certain damages as the sum of $6 16/100 costs of suit. The plaintiff agrees to release the damages on payment of £92. 14. 6½ current money with interest thereon from the 13th of March 1807 until paid. Plaintiff acknowledges
