error, and others, being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that he the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said decree, and that the said Jacob White, Samuel Stone and Barbara Stone may rejoin to the errors aforesaid and so forth. And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said Jacob White, Samuel Stone and Barbara Stone join in the errors by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here will be rendered against him in default thereof. And the said Jacob White, Samuel Stone and Barbara Stone by their attorney aforesaid pray that a day may be given to them to join in the errors by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the first Monday in December next, and to them it is granted; the same day is also given to the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid.

At which said first Monday in December being the fifth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, which said day was given to the said Jacob White, Samuel Stone and Barbara Stone to join in the errors by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid to join in the error by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid, above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid; and the said Jacob White, Samuel Stone and Barbara Stone by their attorney aforesaid say, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the decree aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid above for error assigned, and that the said decree may be in all things affirmed and so forth. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided, further continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in June next; the same day is given to the said parties, there then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises and so forth.

And now at this day to wit, the said second Monday in June being the eleventh day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid. Whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid and the decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said David Stewart Trustee as aforesaid above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had: for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here that there is error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and in the giving of the decree aforesaid. Therefore the Court of Appeals here proceeded to pass such a decree as the Chancery Court ought to have passed. This appeal having been heard and considered. It is ordered and decreed by the authority of this Court, this eleventh day of July 1832, that the decree heretofore passed in this cause by the Honorable the Chancellor, be and the same is hereby reversed without costs, and it is further ordered and decreed that the complainants bill be and the same is hereby dismissed without prejudice to their rights and without costs.
