dwelling house on Doughagan Manor at the time of my death. The other half of the said Tobacco, corn and wheat, plate and household furniture and all rentes due at the time of my death to remain to my grandson Charles Carroll. 9th. I bequeath to my granddaughter Elizabeth Calow, ten thousand dollars: and also to my granddaughter Louisa Lady Dewey, ten thousand dollars. and I hereby direct that the said two Legacies amounting together to twenty thousand dollars, be taken out of the one third of the general residuum of my estate devised and bequeathed in my aforesaid will, in trust for my daughter Mary Calow for life, and after her death to her four daughters. The said sum of twenty thousand dollars is to be reckoned and accounted as a part of the said last mentioned one third of the general residuum of my estate in the division thereof, and the other two thirds of the said general residuum are not to be diminished by reason of the said two legacies. 10th. It is my will and intention that all property real and personal of every kind and description devised or bequeathed to my granddaughters or to any, or to either of them by my aforesaid will, or by this Codicil, and all the estate interest property and money to which my granddaughters or any or either of them may hereafter become entitled under or by virtue of my said Will or this Codicil, shall be free from the control of their respective husbands, and in order more effectually to accomplish this purpose, I hereby devise and bequeath to my friends John McTavish Doctor Richard Stewart and Lewis Neth all the property estate and estates, interest and interests, share and shares, proportion and proportions money and legacies which by my said Will & this Codicil, I have before given to my granddaughters or to any or either of them in possession or remainder, or to which my said granddaughters or any or either of them may become entitled in any manner, under and by virtue of my said will & this Codicil in trust that they the said John McTavish Doctor Richard Stewart and Lewis Neth and the survivor and survivors of them will by proper deeds and instruments of writing secure the same and every part and parcel thereof to the several use of my granddaughters and of each and every of them according to their several proportions and interests as specified and mentioned in my said will & in this Codicil, and in such manner that my said granddaughters and each and every of them may at all times hold their said respective interests free from the control of their present or future husbands, and be able and capable notwithstanding their coverture to use & dispose of the same and every part and parcel thereof by deed, will or otherwise, as absolutely and freely as if they were sole and unmarried. 11th. In my aforesaid will I have devised and bequeathed to the most Revered Ambrose Maréschal Arch Bishop of Baltimore certain real and personal property particularly mentioned in my said will. I hereby revoke and annul all the devises and bequests made to him in my said will, and declare the same and every part and parcel thereof, and the uses and privileges connected therewith to be annulled and revoked. And I hereby bequeath to the most Reverend Ambrose Maréschal the sum of three thousand dollars. 12th. I hereby revoke and annul so much of my aforesaid last will and testament as may be inconsistent with this Codicil, and in all other respects ratify and confirm the said will. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fifth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven.

Charles Carroll of Carrollton (Seal)

Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Charles Carroll of Carrollton the testator therein mentioned as and for a Codicil to his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Roswell L Colt, John Thomas, R D Tansey.

I, Charles Carroll of Carrollton do make this my second Codicil to my last will and testament. In my first Codicil I have devised to my grandson Charles Carroll his heirs and assigns all my Lands called Doughoregan Manor or Doughoregan Manor enlarged with all my lands adjoining the same land or either of them: and in the event of his dying without issue male living at the time of his death, or in ventre sa mere, I have by the same Codicil devised over the same lands, among the families of my said grandson, and my two daughters, as by the said Codicil appears. It has always been my desire to secure the said lands to the male heirs of my family, as long as the Laws of this State will permit: and as my said grandson has at this time two sons, I have determined to change the disposition heretofore made of these lands, and do now devise as follows. I give and devise all my lands called Doughoregan Manor and all my lands called Doughoregan Manor enlarged and all my lands adjoining the said lands of land or either of them, to my grandson Charles Carroll: to hold to him during his natural life, and from and after his decease, I give and devise all the said lands to my great grandson Charles Carroll, eldest son of my said grandson, for and during the term of his natural life: and from and after the decease of my said great grandson Charles Carroll to remain to the first son of my said great grandson, and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing, and for default of such issue, then to the second third fourth fifth and sixth, and all and every other sons of my said great grandson Charles Carroll to be lawfully begotten, and to the heirs male of their bodies respectively, the elder of such son or sons, and the heirs male of his body lawfully issuing, always to be preferred, and to take before the younger of such sons and the heirs male of his body, and in default of such issue then I give the said Lands to any great grandson Thomas Lee Carroll, second son of my said grandson, for and during the term of his natural life, and after