December Term 1838.

Marlborough Town in and for Prince Georges County on the first Monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three a certain Jonathan T. Burch by judgment of the said court recovered against a certain Charles I. Carroll as well the sum of two hundred dollars current money a certain debt as the sum of five hundred dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained as well by reason of the detention of the said debt as the sum of six dollars eighteen and one third cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Charles I. Carroll is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same court brought before the court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the city of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears and whereas it hath been adjudged in the said court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the first Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said Jonathan T. Burch might have execution against the said Charles I. Carroll for as well the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County court as also for the sum of nine dollars and seventy two cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain Appeal by the said Charles I. Carroll before the said court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises whereof the said Charles I. Carroll is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth: and whereas also on the twenty seventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven you were commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Charles I. Carroll being in your bailiwick you should cause to be made the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid and that you should have those sums before the said court of Appeals to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second Monday in June then next, to render unto the said Jonathan T. Burch the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid: on which said second Monday in June in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven you made return to the said court of Appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose, you had taken into execution one Tract of land called part of Smith's discovery and Edwards Addition Susquehannah Point containing 365 acres appraised at eight dollars per acre of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Charles I. Carroll in your bailiwick being to satisfy unto the said Jonathan T. Burch the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned which said goods and chattels lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold by order of plaintiffs attorney so that the said debt damages costs and charges you could not have as you were by the said writ commanded, therefore you are hereby commanded that the said goods and chattels lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken you expose to sale and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the city of Annapolis on the first Monday in December next, to render unto the said Jonathan T. Burch the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias; and how you shall execute this writ you make appear unto the said court of Appeals at the place and on the day aforesaid and have you then and there this writ,
