said judgment by him the said Frederick Holbrook before the said Court of Appeals, wherein that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed, as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals manifestly appear. For which said damages costs and charges the said Frederick Holbrook, and a certain George Collins, James Sangston, and James Keen, on the 2d day of May 1820, appeared before Robert Orrell Esquire, one of the Justices of the Orphans Court for Caroline County, and did confess Judgment to the said Owen & Longstreth - the said damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies, goods & chattels, lands and tenements, for the use of the said Owen & Longstreth, in case the said Frederick Holbrook should not pay and satisfy to the said Owen & Longstreth, the said damages costs and charges so as aforesaid received against him, according to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided, with the additional costs thereon, at the respective times herein after Mentioned, to wit; One third part thereof with all the interest due on the whole sum and all the costs, on or before the 30th day of November 1820, One third part thereof with the interest due on the whole sum, then unpaid with the additional costs, on or before the first day of May 1821; And the residue thereof with the interest thereon and additional costs, on or before the 30th day of November 1821, which confession in form aforesaid taken, was by the said Justices returned to the Court of Appeals here, Where of the said Frederick Holbrook, George Collins, James Sangston and James Keen are convicted as of record is Manifest. And whereas the Honorable William B Martin Judge of the Court of Appeals, by the Suggestion of John Leeds Kerr Esquire Attorney at Law for Owen & Longstreth has agreeably to an Act of Assembly in such case Made & provided Nominated and appointed you an Elisor for the Special purpose of executing this writ. And whereas you were heretofore, to wit, on the 2d day of July 1822, commanded that of the goods & chattels lands & tenements of the said Frederick Holbrook, George Collins James Sangston and James Keen being in your Bailiwick, you should cause to be made & levied the two thirds of the damages aforesaid, with the Interest & additional costs thereon, and that you should have those sums of Money before the Court of Appeals to be held at Easton in Talbot County aforesaid on the last Monday of November then next following, to satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth the balance of the damages costs & charges aforesaid. At which day to wit the last Monday of November 1822, you made return thereof to the said Court that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed you had taken in execution certain goods & chattels lands & tenements of the said Frederick Holbrook, George Collins, James Sangston, and James Keen, to wit; "1 Copper Style $20." "5 head of Cattle $25." "5 head of Sheep $25." "173 acres of land adjoining Peter "Hubbards by whatsoever name the same may be Called $475.00" "All the right of Frederick "Holbrook, in and to the farm where Mrs Willoughby resides, by whatever name the same may be "called & supposed to contain 200 $175." "All the right of the said Holbrook in and to the farm where "George Collins resides; and also all the right of said Collins supposed to contain 250 acres more "or less $750." "One Negro man named Isaac belonging to James Sangston $250." "One farm be-"longing to James Keen, adjoining Joseph Anthony's supposed to contain 120 acres more or less "$10 per acre $1930.00" Which said goods & chattels, lands & tenements remained in your hands for want of buyers. Therefore you are hereby Commanded to sell or Cause to be sold the said goods and Chattels lands and tenements, and every part thereof, and the sum of Money arising therefrom have before the said Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County on the last Monday of November next, to satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth the balance of the damages and additional costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness, the Honorable Seumeah Chase Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the 2d day of June 1823, Issued the 28th day of June 1823

(K.) James Parrott Clk.

At which said last Monday of November being the twenty fourth day of the same Month in the year of Our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty three, and the return day of the aforegoing writ, Comes into the Court of Appeals here, the said Owen & Longstreth, by their Attorney aforesaid and William McDonald Esqr Elisor, as aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed, makes return thereof to the Court here there endorsed to wit,

"Property still on hand for want of Buyers" 10th Mch. McDonald. Elisor.

And be it further remembered that on the seventeenth day of December Eighteen hundred and twenty three, the said Owen & Longstreth by John Leeds Kerr Esquire their said Attorney prosecuted and came forth out of the Court of Appeals here and upon the judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid in the said Court of Appeals affirmed, and in manner & form aforesaid confessed, a writ of the State of Maryland of Rendition Exponas, to William McDonald Esqr late Sheriff of Caroline County directed in the words & figures and of the tenor following to wit,

The State of Maryland, To William McDonald Esqr late Sheriff of Caroline County Greeting

Seal of E. Shore Court of Appeals

Whereas at a County Court began and held at Denton in and for Caroline County on the second Monday of October in the year of our Lord 1818, a certain Owen and Longstreth by Consideration of the same Court, did recover judgment against a certain Frederick Holbrook for as well the sum of two thousand dollars Current Money, for their damages which they had sustained by reason of the Non-performance of certain promises and assumptions as the sum of Sixty dollars 41½ cents for their costs and charges, by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Frederick Holbrook convicted, as by the record and proceedings of the said County Court which was lately caused to be brought into the Court of Appeals held for the Eastern Shore of the said State, at Easton, in Talbot County, for certain causes of error in the same to be Corrected is manifest. And whereas also afterwards, to wit, in the said Court of Appeals held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton, in Talbot County on the first Monday of June, in the year of our Lord 1819, the said Owen & Longstreth did recover judgment against the said Frederick Holbrook for the other sum of Nine dollars & twenty five cents, which unto the said Owen & Longstreth was by the said Court of Appeals adjudged for their costs and charges which they had sustained by reason of the delay of the execution of the judgment aforesaid by pretence of prosecuting an Appeal of said upon the said Judgment, by him the said Frederick Holbrook before the said Court of Appeals, whereon that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals, manifestly appears: For which said damages costs and charges the said Frederick Holbrook and a certain Geo. Collins, Jas. Sangston and Jas. Keen on the 2d day of May in the year of our Lord 1820, appeared before Robert Orrell Esquire one of the Justices of the Orphans Court in and for Caroline County, and did confess Judgment to the said Owen & Longstreth, - the said damages, costs, and charges aforesaid to be levied of their bodies, goods and chattels, lands & tenements for the use of the said Owen & Longstreth in case the said Frederick Holbrook should not pay or satisfy to the said Owen & Longstreth the said damages costs & charges so as aforesaid received against him, according to the Act of Assembly in such case made & provided with the additional costs thereon, at the respective times herein after Mentioned, to wit, One third part thereof with the interest due on the whole sum, and all the costs, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1820; One third part thereof with the interest on the whole sum then unpaid with the additional costs on or before the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one and the residue thereof with the interest thereon, and additional costs, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the year eighteen hundred & twenty one, which said Confession in form aforesaid taken was by the said Justices returned to the Court of Appeals here as of record is manifest: Where of the said Holbrook, Collins, Sangston and Keen are convicted, as of record is also manifest: And whereas you were heretofore, to wit, on the 15th day of January in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one, commanded that of the goods & chattels lands & tenements of the said Holbrook, Collins, Sangston, and Keen, in your bailiwick they should be found, you should cause to be made & levied the third part of the damages aforesaid & all Interest & Costs & when you had the same so made & levied, or any part thereof, the same in your Custody should safely keep, so that you might have the same before the Court of Appeals to be held at Easton in Talbot County on the first Monday of June then next following to satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth the damages, costs and charges aforesaid and that thereof you should not fail at your peril, and that you should have then and there that writ, at which said first Monday of June in the year 1821, you made return thereof to our Judges, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed, you had taken in execution certain goods & chattels, lands & tenements of the said Frederick Holbrook, to wit, One grey Mare $30 One Gig & harness $120 Several tracts or parcels of land called "Hubbards Desire" "More Luck" "Hap-Hazard" & "Chipmans Field" supposed to contain 152 $306 - $465 - Which said goods & chattels lands & tenements remained in your hands for want of buyers. We therefore Commanded you, That you sell or Cause to be sold the said goods & chattels lands & tenements, and every part, thereof, and the sum of Money arising therefrom you, have before the said Court of Appeals to be held at Easton in Talbot County on the first Monday of June next to satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth the damages costs & charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable Jeremiah T Chase Esquire
