They then produced and offered to read in evidence to the Jury, the Will of Mary Delany (mother whereof they also deemed title regularly certified by the Register of Wills for Anne Arundel County to wit

In the name of God amen. I Mary Delany of the City of Annapolis Widow, being of sound and disposing mind & memory do make and publish my Last Will & Testament in manner and form following. First I give and devise to my son Walter Dulany and his heirs forever all the real and personal estate of whatever nature or kind that I may die seized or possessed of, subject nevertheless to the following Trusts. First, to pay out of the same one yearly annuity of fifteen pounds sterling money to my daughter Rebecca Hanson so long as she shall live to her own seperate use and behoof exclusive of her husband and not subject to his Debts or Control and I will that her receipt or order in writing for the same under her hand from time to time shall be a sufficient discharge for the same notwithstanding her coverture, and in further trust to pay the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling to such person or persons as my said Daughter shall appoint and direct and in such proportion as she pleases by any Deed or Instrument in writing in her lifetime or by any writing in nature of a Last Will & Testament to take effect from and after her decease in case she survives me, and in case my said daughter dies in my lifetime then I will and direct that the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling be equally divided between Henry Addison, Mary Grafton Addison and Rebecca Hanson, children of my Daughter Rebecca Hanson, Secondly, to pay out of the same one yearly annuity of fifteen pounds, sterling, to my my daughter Mary Pottinger so long as she shall live to her own seperate use and behoof exclusive of her husband and not subject to his Debts or Control and I will that her receipt or order in writing for the same under her hand from time to time shall be a sufficient discharge for the same notwithstanding her coverture, and in further Trust to pay the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling to such person or persons as my said Daughter Mary shall appoint and direct, and in such proportion as she pleases by any Deed or Instrument of writing in her lifetime or by any writing in nature of a last Will & Testament to take effect from and after her decease in case she survives me, and in case my said Daughter Mary dies in my lifetime then I will and direct that the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling be equally divided amongst my Daughter Marys children. Thereby to pay out of the same one other yearly annuity of fifteen pounds sterling to my daughter Margaret Montgomery so long as she shall live to her own seperate use and behoof, exclusive of her husband and not subject to his debts or control and I will that her receipt or order in writing for the same under her hand from time to time shall be a sufficient discharge for the same notwithstanding her coverture, and in further trust to pay the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling to such person or persons as my said Daughter Margaret shall appoint and direct and in such proportion as she pleases by any Deed or Instrument of writing in her lifetime, or by any writing in nature of a Last Will & Testament to take effect from and after her decease in case she survives me, and in case my said daughter Margaret dies in my lifetime then I will and direct that the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, be equally divided amongst my daughter Margarets children. Fourthly to pay out of the same one other yearly annuity of fifteen pounds sterling to my daughter Catharine Bell, so long as she shall live to her own seperate use and behoof exclusive of her husband, and not subject to his Debts or Control, and I will that her receipt or order in writing for the same under her hand from time to time shall be a sufficient discharge for the same, notwithstanding her coverture, and in further trust to pay the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling to such person or persons, as my said daughter Catharine shall appoint and direct, and in such proportion as she pleases by any Deed or Instrument of writing in her lifetime or by any writing in nature of a Last Will and Testament to take effect from and after her decease in case she survives me, and in case she dies before me then I will and direct the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling be equally divided amongst the children of my daughter Catharine. This my further will and desire, that in case any of my said Daughters survives me and make no appointment or disposition of the two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, over which they hereby have power. That then such sum shall be equally divided amongst the children of such Daughter dying without making such disposition. It is my Will and Intention that all my real and personal estate over and above what is sufficient to discharge the Trusts herein raised and the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, and I hereby give the same to my son Walter Dulany and his Heirs forever and appoint my said son sole Trustee and Executor of this my Last Will & Testament hereby revoking all other powers wills by me made In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this ninth day of August seventeen hundred and ninety one. Mary Dulany (Seal)
