accrue to the said John Williams in that parte of Widows Chance now claimed by said Williams; all of which said actings and doings are contrary to equity and good conscience and tend greatly to the prejudice and injury of your orator. In tender consideration whereof and forasmuch as your orator is remediless in the premises except by the interposition of this Honorable Court whose matters of this kind are properly cognizable and to the end that the said John Williams may upon his corporal oath answer the premises as fully and particularly as if the same were again repeated and he especially interrogated thereto and moreover that your orator may not be unjustly deprived of his property upon judgments fraudulently obtained and execution issued upon such judgments, May it please your Honour to grant unto your orator injunctions upon the said Judgments and executions of Fi. Fa. to the said John Williams and to the Clerk and Sheriff of said County to be directed commanding them to stay and surcease all further proceedings on the said executions and thereon until the further order of this Honorable Court as also the States writ of Subpana to the said John Williams directed commanding him the said to appear in this Honorable Court on some day certain to answer unto the premises and so forth.
