Articles of agreement made this twenty third day of December one one thousand eight hundred and nineteen between John Williams of Worcester County and State of Maryland of the one part and William W. Allen of Somerset County and State aforesaid of the other part witnesseth that the said William W. Allen doth agree to and with the said John Williams afs that he will not compromise neither make up or sell any land to the said Peter Guillett in consequence of a suit being brought against the said Peter Guillett for a trespass on said Allens land or suspend so until the said dispute on acct of the said suit shall be settled by due course of law and the said Allen shall use all lawful means to prevent the Guillett from cutting or working & carrying off any timber & lumber of any kind on any of the said lands which the said Allen claims except on Allens sale until the said law suit aforesaid shall be determined according to law as aforesaid. and further the said Allen doth agree to furnish the said John Williams with any or all of his title papers at any time of any of his lands or any which he may have that is adjoining his lands: and whereas the said John Williams does claim lands in somerset County by different names first part of the Widows Change & also the lands called Little Island, which the said William W. Allen also claims and we have mutually agreed by these presents that so soon as it may be convenient after the suit of Allen & Guillett shall be decided or sooner if we can agree that the title between the said Allen and Williams shall be decided which the said lands belong to by leaving the same to Ephraim K. Wilson, Jonas Bayly and George Handy of George of Somerset County and should they disagree the aforesaid three lawyers may choose another man whose opinion to the title of the aforesaid lands whether they shall be the title of the said John Williams or William W. Allen they shall make it out in writing and their names to it and each of said party claiming shall have a copy of the award delivered to them by the said Arbitrators within ten days after they shall determine whose property the aforesaid lands may be: and the said Allen is
