as by inspecting the record & proceedings of the same County Court brought before the Court of Appeals held for the Eastern shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And forasmuch as it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at Easton aforesaid, on the first Monday of June in the year of our Lord 1823, that the said Judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Govert Haskins might have execution against the said Joseph Haskins for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court of Talbot, as also for the sum of Nine dollars and thirty five cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting an Appeal by the said Joseph Haskins, before the said Court of Appeals, whereof the said Joseph Haskins is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth. And whereas also on the 27th day of October in the year 1824, command was given to you, that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at Easton, on the last Monday of November next, to be rendered unto the said Govert Haskins for the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid. On which said last Monday of November 1824, you made return thereof to the said Court, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose you had taken in execution certain goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Joseph Haskins, to wit, a tract or part of a tract of land called "Kingston" containing 104 acres, more or less, then occupied by Clark Billiter; also one other tract or parcel of land called "Haskins's Discovery", adjoining or near the lands of William Mackey, containing 94 acres, more or less; one Lot on Washington Street 37 feet front and running back 160 feet, one Lot on South Street near the Corner, fronting on South Street 80 feet, and running back 160 feet adjoining the Lot of N. Hammond Esq, one other Lot on Goldsborough and Harrison Streets, containing about one and adjoining Barton's Lot, five and one third acres of land near the Town of Easton, being part of a tract of land called Londonderry, one negro woman called Mary and her two children, one a boy about 8 years of age, the other a girl three years old, which said goods and chattels, lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers so that the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid you could not have as by the said Writ you were commanded. Whereof you are hereby commanded, that the said goods and chattels lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken you expose to sale, and the money thereupon arising you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern shore of the said State at Easton, in Talbot County on the last Monday of November next, to render unto the said Govert Haskins the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid. And of all this not at your peril and have you then and there this Writ. Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the 6th day of June 1825. Issued the 29th day of June 1825. Test James Parrott Clk
