=pogatories to be put to said witness which are herewith returned and the said witness being examined thereon, deposes and says.—
To the 1st Cross Interrogatory, I never compared them Mr Vaugh= =an said he would send me a true copy of the original and I think that is it.—
To the 2nd Cross Interrogatory, There was no consideration men= =tioned at the time, No money was given by me at the time.— The consideration was just as it ran in the article.—
To the 3d Cross Interrogatory, Well I thought myself the money they got from the sale to Skinner went in that way, I never paid any money myself on the agreement.—
To the 4th Cross Interrogatory, They claimed an interest in the part I purchased from Josiah Frost under the will of their father, and I claimed an interest in their lands under the agreement.— When I purchased Josiah out, I thought it gave me a right to step in Josiah's shoes.—
To the 5th Cross Interrogatory, I did after the article passed but the Frosts and I could never agree.—
To the 6th Cross Interrogatory, There was a great deal talked of at the time between Frost and me, That was talked of at the time of the agreement, The coal mine was on Josiah Frosts land The will gave Meshack and Isaiah no privilege of opening another The reason the article was drawn was to give them the privi= =lege of opening with me on the land that I was about to buy from Josiah, because the will did not mention any privilege, but Josiah and I had bargained, but had not entered into writing, we had gone up to Vaughans, to enter into writing, when Isaiah Frost came to Vaughans after me and I thought when I entered into this writing that I would have the same privilege on their lands that they could have on mine.— To the 7th Cross Interrogatory, We never could agree about it, we had a great many disputes about it.—
To the 8th Cross Interrogatory, I think that was about what passed between us I wanted to have the same privileges as they had.—
To the 9th Cross Interrogatory, There was so much passed that I have no recollection of all that did pass, and I think I contended on that day that I had the same rights with them.—
