Reverdy Johnson, James Wm. M'Culloh.

in the year 1835.

John Glenn vs Beale Randall } On this second day of February 1836 into open Court comes John Glenn and makes oath that the Award aforesaid is just and correct and he further states that he holds some property and effects assigned to him by said defendant as security in part for the amount of such award but how much this deponent cannot yet ascertain therefrom he cannot say. That according to deponents statement of Accounts which he believes to be correct the said Randall owes deponent twenty six thousand dollars and upwards to secure which deponent has the assignment aforesaid from said Randall

Sworn to in open Court
Thos. Kell clk.

Therefore it is considered by the court here that the said John Glenn have the writ of the State of Maryland of attachment against the lands tenements goods chattels and credits of the said Beale Randall to satisfy unto the said John Glenn as well the aforesaid sum of twenty six thousand dollars current money in the affidavit aforesaid mentioned as the sum of seven dollars seventy eight and one third cents by the Court here unto the said John Glenn on his assent adjudged for his costs and charges expended in and about the premises together with the costs and charges which the said John Glenn may hereafter expend in the prosecution of said writ of attachment &c.

Memorandum Judgment for attachment was rendered in the above case on the second day of February 1836 for twenty six thousand dollars with interest from the said 2d day of February 1836 & costs.

Test Thos. Kell clk
