Esquire, by whom the foregoing Record was attested is the Recorder of Deeds and Mortgages in and for said County, duly Commissioned & qualified as such; that the foregoing Signature purporting to be his is genuine & that the said attestation is in due form & by the proper officer. In Witness whereof I hereto set my hand and Seal this 24th day of December A.D. 1852.

Robert J. Fisher (Seal)

And on the same Eighth day of January A.D. in the year eighteen hundred and fifty three, the following motion was made and filed in said Cause & dissolve the Injunction, towit:

Robert Lemmon & Maria Winchester vs The Balt. & Susq. R.R. Co.

The Defendant having filed its answer in this Case, moves & dissolve the Injo. —

F. M. Campbell
Defts Solr.

Whereupon, on the Eleventh day of January, A.D. wit; in the year last aforesaid, the Court passed, and filed in said Cause the following Order for hearing of Motion to dissolve injunction, as follows, towit:

Ordered this 11th day of January A.D. 1853. That the motion to dissolve the Injo. in this Case, Stand for hearing on the 22d of January Inst. Provided a Copy of this Order be Served on Compts Solicitor on or before the 16th Inst.

Wm. Fisick

And afterwards, to wit: on the Seventeenth day of January in the year last aforesaid, the following Copy of Order for hearing of motion to dissolve Injunction &c. was filed in said Cause, as follows, towit; (See original order above on this page.) which said Copy of said order for hearing &c. is duly attested, as follows, towit; "True Copy. Test. Edwd. Dowling Clk." On the back whereof is thus endorsed, to wit; "Service of Copy admitted. Wallis & Thomas, Jany. 13th 1853."

The said motion to dissolve the Injunction having been argued by the Solicitors of the respective parties. Whereupon for that the Court here is not advised to give its Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid, day therefore is given to the said parties to hear thereof its Judgment until the first day in February then next &c. At which term towit; the said first day in February in the year last aforesaid, Come into the said Court here, Sitting as a Court of Equity, the parties aforesaid, by their Solicitors aforesaid. Whereupon for that the Court here, is not yet advised & give its Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid day therefore is further given to the said parties to hear there of its Judgment, until the first day in March then next &c. At which term, towit: the said first day in March, in the year last aforesaid, Come again into the said Court here, Sitting as a Court of Equity, the parties aforesaid by their Solicitors aforesaid; And thereupon, the following Deed. Mortgage, and Copy of a Law of the State of Pennsylvania, duly authenticated were filed in said Cause, towit; —

George Winchester et ux
To
Robert Lemmon, Trustee

This Indenture, made this first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, between George Winchester of the City of Baltimore and State of Maryland and Maria Winchester his wife of the one part and Robert Lemmon Esquire of the same place and State of the other part. Whereas at April term of the Court of Common Pleas for York County in the State of Pennsylvania certain Judgments were rendered against the York Haven Company for the payment of sundry sums of money due to the Plaintiffs in several suits therein depending, upon which said Judgments process of execution was issued to the Sheriff of York County aforesaid, who caused the same to be levied upon and Singular the Real Estate of the York Haven Company aforesaid Situate lying and being in Newberry township in York County aforesaid, Containing Two hundred and forty (240) acres of patented land, more or less; together with all the mills, houses, warehouses, ground rent and other improvements thereon, and also the Canal locks and ferry, with all and Singular the Estate legal and equitable of the York Haven Company aforesaid, in and to the same, and to every part and parcel thereof; And the said Sheriff of York County, did on the Seventeenth day of May in the year eighteen hundred and thirty expose the same to Sale by public auction, at the Court House, in the Borough of York, at which Sale George Winchester, one of the parties of the first part hereto, became the highest bidder therefor, and purchaser thereof, by bidding the Sum of Eighteen Thousand two hundred dollars, and having paid the full amount of the purchase money, the said Sheriff of York County, did on the thirty first day of July eighteen hundred and thirty, execute and deliver to the said George Winchester a deed of Conveyance for the said Estate and premises. And Whereas the said George Winchester, and Maria Winchester his wife, by Indenture dated twelfth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, reciting the premises, and also that Sheppard C. Leakin, John Glenn and William H. Freeman at the time of making the said purchase were each interested in and entitled to one equal fourth part thereof, and had each paid one fourth part of the purchase money aforesaid, did, as by said Indenture, on reference thereto had, will more fully and at large appear, grant, bargain and sell, alien, enfeoff and convey, assign transfer and make over to the said Sheppard C. Leakin, John Glenn and William H. Freeman, their heirs and assigns as tenants in common, and not as joint tenants. Three undivided fourth parts of and in all and Singular the said tract or parcel of land and premises. And Whereas at the time of making the purchase aforesaid, Maria Winchester, the wife of the said George Winchester was interested in and entitled to one equal one fourth part thereof, and the said purchase was made in trust for her, and one fourth part of the