Estate of Robert N Bowie } In Chancery, Deceased } Catharine Bowie a Creditor of the deceased and whose claim is stated as No 184 excepts,

First To the Auditors Report lately filed in this cause and to such parts thereof as objects that the said claim is not proved or is not proper to be allowed. This Excepts assigning that said claim is fully proved and is proper to be allowed as well against the said proceeds of sale of the Land called Connicks as against the personal Estate and other real Estate of the deceased,

Second To so much of said Report and especially to so much of the Auditors account A as assumes that the Monies arising for rents and profits of the said called Connicks Land should be of the general personal Estate and are distributable as such This Excepts assigning that said Monies are exclusively applicable in payment of her aforesaid claim,

4th And especially this Excepts objects to the allowance of said claim and any and every part thereof as against the proceeds of the said called Connicks as well for the reasons aforesaid as because the debt which is supposed was once charged on Connicks has been paid or otherwise satisfied or extinguished or barred by limitations or lapse of time and if it ever existed is no longer chargeable on said Land or the proceeds thereof,
