He allowed He allowed his whole claim as established by the settlement between the said Richardson Johns, dated on the 16th August 1834 save by the receipt of the Sheriff of Harford County from credit only to a partial payment made on the latter as admitted no part whatever having been offered to sustain the Allegation of the said Robinson that there was any Mistake Mis-understanding or settlement,

The Complainant claims repayment of sum costs which have been incurred in the pursuit of his responsibility therefor had been offered and of his consent no alteration made in account thereof.

All which is respectfully submitted.
