Whereupon accordingly issued Writ of Injunction against the said Curtis Davis, Sylvester N. Smith, William Henry Watkins and William Stack in the words and of the tenor following towit;

"Caroline County towit. The State of Maryland to Curtis Davis, Sylvester N. Smith, William Henry Watkins & William Stack and Each and Every of them Greeting:

(Seal)

Whereas Amelia Reed formerly Amelia Wright Daughter of Isaac Wright has lately filed in Our Circuit Court for Caroline County her Bill of Complaint against you in which said Bill of Complaint it is represented to the Judge of the Circuit Court for Caroline County sitting as a Court of Equity that "the said Isaac Wright departed this life on or about the twenty third day of January Eighteen hundred and fifty having first made and Executed in due form of Law his last Will and testament bearing date the blank day of Eighteen hundred and fifty Eight as a copy thereof herewith filed marked Exhibit A. and prayed to be taken as part of this bill will more fully appear. Your Oratrix further makes known unto your Honor that under and by virtue of the provisions of the last Will and testament of her deceased father Isaac Wright among other lands and premises allotted by the Commissioners therein named to your Oratrix the land and real Estate belonging to said deceased situate in Caroline County known as the "Old Nichols Farm" whereon she now resides being part of the land originally owned by one Isaac Nichols and the same which were bargained and sold by one James Brown Trustee of Daniel Cahall an insolvent Debtor and conveyed to said Isaac Wright by said James Brown by indenture bearing date the fifth day of May in the year Eighteen hundred and twenty seven duly recorded among the Land Records of Caroline County as by reference to a copy of said Indenture herewith filed Exhibit B. & prayed to be taken as part of this bill will more fully appear.

Your Oratrix further makes known unto your Honor that she has been in the quiet and peaceable possession of the arable land included in said farm Ever since the decease of her said father & also of the wood land attached thereto, and that her father Isaac Wright was in the peaceable possession of the same from the time of his purchase thereof to the day of his death. That among the lands always included and held and used occupied and cut upon as part thereof by her said deceased father Isaac Wright and all tenants and occupants under him is an adjoining piece of timber land containing about thirty five acres of land more or less. Your Oratrix further makes known unto your Honor that on or about the month of January 1855 a certain Curtis Davis,

Sylvester N. Smith, William Henry Watkins and William Stack have Commenced cutting and destroying the timber upon the same and are now Engaged with a large force from ten to fifteen in number cutting and destroying the said timber and have announced their determination to cut and carry off all the timber thereon despite the entreaties and remonstrances of your Oratrix. Your Oratrix further makes known unto your Honor that the said tract of land wherein she resides as above stated known as the "Old Nichols Farm" has no more timber thereon than is absolutely necessary for said Farm including the part now nearly cut down and destroyed by the aforesaid Davis, Smith, Watkins and Stack, that the destruction of said timber land will be of great and almost irreparable injury to her said farm. That no Compensation in the shape of damages for the actual value of said timber will compensate your Oratrix for such distruction of said timber. Your Oratrix further makes known to your Honor that she intends instituting in Caroline Circuit Court her Writ of Ejectment and trespass against the said parties but before the same can be brought to trial all the wood and timber on said lands will be destroyed and carried off as one half thereof is now cut down and the said parties have announced their intention not to desist until the whole is cut down. In as much therefore as your Oratrix is remediless in the premises save by the aid of this Honorable Court may it please your Honor to grant to your Oratrix the Writ of Injunction against the said Curtis Davis, Sylvester N. Smith, William Henry Watkins & William Stack directed commanding them and Each of them their agents servants and Hirelings to stay and sur cease all and all manner of cutting and waste upon the said tract of Timber land and also enjoining them from hauling off or removing from said premises the timber and wood of all sorts already cut down and now on said premises until the further order of this Court and also to grant to your Oratrix the writ of Subpoena to the said Curtis Davis Sylvester N. Smith, Henry Watkins and William Stack Comm and requiring them to be and appear in this Court on some day to be therein named to answer the premises and abide the further order of this Court and to grant to your Oratrix all such further and other relief as her case may require Was in duty bound &c. Therefore in consideration of the premises You the said Curtis Davis, Sylvester N. Smith William Henry Watkins and William Stack your servants agents Hirelings and Each and Every of you and hereby Strictly enjoined and Commanded under the penalty prescribed by the act of Assembly in such case made and provided, that you and Each of you do cease and desist from Committing any further waste in or upon the said aforerecited lands and premises by Cutting down and Carrying away from off the said land any timber or wood that may be growing or being thereon or from taking and carrying away or removing from said premises the timber and wood of all sorts already cut or any of the enclosure fences or fence rails being on and
