April Term 1868

She said that the colored boy and the boy had had a quarrel, She said that the had told John about it.

She said that John held with the colored boy.

She asked me if I thought it was right I told her that I could not interfere with it myself she said that she was very sorry she ever come there and would not have come there if it hadnt been for her husband, ill health and poor eye sight.

She said that she could have had a house of her own if her husband could have given a clear deed of the land he had in Tennessee.

She said he was a going into business in Baltimore, and if he succeeded, then he was a going to move there, and if not he was going Philadelphia.

This is about all she said at that time.

Fourth interrogatory

Did or did not Mrs Chatterton at that time explaine to you how she was to have got a house of her own in case Robert Chatterton could have given a clear deed for his Tennessee land.

If yea, State what explanation she gave

Answer

Yes Sir, She said that John Chatterton had a house in Philadelphia and she wanted Robert Chatterton to give the land he had in Tennessee for the house, but Robert Chatterton couldnt give a clear deed of it and her brother traded it away for the house that John got from Dobson I believe that was his name.
