Exhibit J. E. No 2. is a duly certified copy of the declaration and docket entries in that case. There was another suit pending at the testators death in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City which has been despposed of. There was a magistrates suit which represented one of the claims in the Orphans Court and which was the only one of those claims which was disputed. There were various attachments of no practical importance to the estate. Neither of the claims represented by "J. E." Nos. 1 and 2 were filed in the Orphans Court. There is a suit in the nature of an interpleader in the City Circuit Court instituted by John Haugh, and to which we are made parties but which I don't regard as important. That's all I can remember.

(Question and answer objected to as irrelevant.)

4th Interrogatory. What were the claims secured by mortgage which existed against John Eschbach at the time of his death?

The claims secured by mortgage against his estate amounted to $41750. There was $9000. to the Savings Bank of Baltimore, $10,000 to Wm. F. Burns, $8000. to Rev. Dr. Brown, $5000, to a lady named Morris represented by Messrs Schmucker & Whitelock, $3750. to the executors of the Dr. Fuller, $2000. to John W. Keighe and $4000. with a mortgage and note made by Samuel Black and which John Eschbach assumed the payment of by an agreement under seal. There was another which nominally was a redeemable groundrent at first which became irredeemable by lapse of time, but which the reversioner agreed treat as if a mortgage at six per cent which was the rate at which it was settled, it amounted to $3500.

(Question and Answer objected to as irrelevant, and answer further objected to because the mortgages and papers referred to are not produced.)

5th Interrogatory. Is this last mentioned debt of $3500, included in or additional to the aggregate of $41,750. which you gave?

No sir. it was $41.750. without that.

(Question and answer objected to as irrelevant.)

6th Interrogatory. Have you paid as such administrators any funeral expenses of the deceased, and if so how much?

We have paid the funeral expenses. They amounted to $620. and some cents.

(Question and answer objected to.)

7th Interrogatory. What is the amount of the expenses of the administration paid out of the estate up to this time including commissions?

Thirty nine hundred and sixty nine dollars which includes the Register's fees as well as commissions allowed and paid.

(Question and answer objected to as irrelevant.)

8th Interrogatory. Where is the property situated to which you have referred, in which the late John Eschbach was considered or treated as equitably the owner, subject to a mortgage, although apparently and under the formal conveyances, possessed of a leasehold estate?

Northeast corner of Howard and Saratoga streets.

(Objected to an irrelevant.)

9th Interrogatory. Excluding that property at the N.E. corner of Howard and Saratoga streets what was the value of all the personal estate of the said John Eschbach which came to the hands of his administrators after his death?

Thirty three thousand five hundred and twenty eight dollars and some cents.

Question and answer objected to as irrelevant and answer further objected to, the competency of the witness to testify to values not having been shown.)
