and injury when and so forth, and prays further leave of the Court here to Imparle hereunto until the second Tuesday of September next, and to her it is granted, the same day is given to the aforesaid John Bretin also.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the fourteenth day of the same month, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy three, to which day the said Ann Flannegan had further leave to Imparle, comes again here into his Lordships Provincial Court, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid; And the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid, as before defends the force and injury when and so forth, and prays further leave of the Court here to Imparle hereunto until the second Tuesday of April next; and to her it is granted, the same day is given to the aforesaid John Bretin also.

At which said second Tuesday of April, to wit, the third day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy four, to which day, April Term in the Year aforesaid, was adjourned by Act of Assembly, for that purpose made and provided, and to which day the said Ann Flannegan had further leave to Imparle, comes again here into his Lordships Provincial Court, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid; And the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid, as before defends the force and injury when and so forth, and prays further leave of the Court here to Imparle hereunto until the second Tuesday of September next; and to her it is granted, the same day is given to the aforesaid John Bretin also.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the thirteenth day of the same month, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy four, to which said day the said Ann Flannegan had further leave to Imparle, comes again here into his Lordships provincial Court, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid: Thereupon further proces of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, by consent of the said parties, and their Attornies aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon is continued until the second Tuesday of April next following.

At which said second Tuesday of April being the Eleventh day of the same month, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy five, comes again into his Lordships Provincial Court here, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid: Thereupon further proces of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, by consent of the said parties, and their Attornies aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon is further continued until the second Tuesday of September next following.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the twelfth day of the same month in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy five, comes again into his Lordships provincial Court here, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid: Thereupon further proces of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, by consent of the said parties, and their Attornies aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon is further continued until the second Tuesday of April next following.

On which day, to wit; the said second Tuesday of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six, the Plaint, plea and proceedings aforesaid remained without day, because the Court aforesaid was not held nor open, and afterwards by virtue of a certain Act of the General Assembly of the State of Maryland made at a Session of Assembly begun and held at the City of Annapolis on the fifth day of February and ending the twentieth day of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy seven in the first Year of the Independence of the United States of America, was revived, continued and adjourned until the second Tuesday of May Anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy eight, the same day was given by the Act of Assembly aforesaid, as well to the aforesaid John Bretin, as to the said Ann Flannegan in the Court aforesaid then and there and so forth,

At which said second Tuesday of May being the twelfth day of the same month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight, comes again into the General Court here, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by Joseph Nicholson his Attorney as the said Ann Flannegan by Samuel Chase her Attorney aforesaid; And thereupon on Motion of the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid, It is Ruled by the Court here, that the aforesaid John Bretin declare against the said Ann Flannegan in the plea aforesaid, by the second Tuesday of October next, or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against him in default thereof; Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, by consent of the said parties and their Attornies aforesaid, and by Order of the Court here thereon is further continued until the said second Tuesday of October next following.

And now, at this day, to wit, the said second Tuesday of October being the thirteenth day of the same month, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight, comes again into the General Court here, as well the aforesaid John Bretin by his Attorney last aforesaid, as the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid, And the aforesaid John Bretin at the prayer of the said Ann Flannegan by her Attorney aforesaid although solemnly called to come into Court and file his declaration against the said Ann Flannegan in the plea aforesaid, according to the Rule aforesaid, cometh not again, but makes default,

Therefore it is considered, by the Court here, that the aforesaid John Bretin take nothing by his Writ aforesaid, but be in Mercy for his false clamour, and that the said Ann Flannegan go thereof without day &c. And it is also considered that the said Ann Flannegan recover against the aforesaid John Bretin the quantity of pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto her the said Ann Flannegan with her assent adjudged for her Costs and Charges by her about her defence in this behalf laid out and expended, and that she have thereof her Execution and so forth.
