May Term 1783

to testify on behalf of the State against William Lynch, and not to depart the Court without leave, being solemnly called to come into Court according to the tenor of the said Recognizance, comes not but makes default Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire the States attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited and continued till next Court

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander, being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against Nathan Perrigo, and not to depart this Court, without leave; being solemnly called to come into Court, according to the tenor of the said Recognizance comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire the States Attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited and continued till next Court.

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander, being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against Syter Stevenson, and not to depart the Court without leave, being solemnly called to come into Court according to the Tenor of the said Recognizance, comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire, the States Attorney General the same Recognizance is respited and continued till next Court.

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against Thomas Graves, and not depart the Court without leave, being solemnly called to come into Court according to the Tenor of the said Recognizance, comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire, the States Attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited and continued till next Court.

May Term 1783

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against Henry Oram, and not to depart the Court without leave, being solemnly called to come into Court, according to the tenor of the said Recognizance comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire, the States Attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited, and continued till next Court.

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against Henry Oram and not to depart the Court without leave, being solemnly called to come into Court according to the tenor of the said Recognizance, comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin Esquire, the States Attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited and continued till next Court.

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify on behalf of the State against John Cotrell, and not to depart the Court without leave; being solemnly called to come into Court according to the tenor of the said Recognizance, comes not, but makes default; Thereupon at the prayer of Luther Martin, Esquire the States Attorney General, the same Recognizance is respited and continued untill next Court.

The State
a
Mark Alexander £50

The said Mark Alexander being also heretofore bound by Recognizance in the sum of fifty pounds for the appearance of a certain Paul Garretson this Court to testify against William Stur-

bridge