James Gordon & others vs Samuel Abel, ys.

Be it Remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the fourteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, the Plaintiffs by William Cooke their attorney sued forth out of the General Court here the State of Maryland of Capias ad respondendum directed to the Sheriff of Saint Mary's County in the words and figures following to wit:

The state of Maryland &c. To the sheriff of Saint Marys County greeting We command you that you take Samuel Abell late of Saint Marys county planter otherwise called Samuel Abell youngr of Saint Marys county if he shall be found in your bailiwick and him safe keep so that you have his body before the judges of our General court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second tuesday

Tuesday of May next to answer unto James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram of a plea that he render unto them the full and just sum of six hundred and sixty five pounds eleven shillings and eight pence current money which to them he owes and from them unjustly detains &c. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ Witness the honourable Samuel Chase esquire chief judge of our said court the 11th day of February Anno domini 1792.

Issued the 11th day of April 1792. (W. Cooke) John Gwinn Clk.

And the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram by their attorney aforesaid declared against the aforesaid Samuel Abell youngest in the plea aforesaid in manner and form following to wit.

State of Maryland saint Mary's County &c. Samuel Abell late of Saint Marys County planter otherwise called Samuel Abell Youngr. of Saint Marys county was summoned to answer unto James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram of a plea that he render unto them the full and just sum of six hundred and sixty five pounds eleven shillings and eight pence current money which to them he owes and from them unjustly detains and so forth. And whereupon the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram by William Cooke their attorney say that whereas the aforesaid Samuel Abell on the third day of April in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine at the county aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the aforesaid James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram in the aforesaid sum of six hundred and sixty five pounds eleven shillings and eight pence current money to be paid to them the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram when afterwards he should be thereunto required. Nevertheless the aforesaid Samuel although often thereunto required the aforesaid sum of current money to them the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram or either of them hath not rendered or paid but the same sum of money to them hitherto to render or pay hath altogether refused and still doth refuse wherefore the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram say they are the worse and have damage to the value of twelve hundred pounds Current money aforesaid and therefore they bring suit and so forth; and bring here into court the writing obligatory aforesaid
