declaration aforesaid of the said Samuel Davidson in a plea aforesaid. comes again into the General Court here, as well the said Samuel Davidson by his attorney aforesaid, as the said Ignatius Pigman by his attorney aforesaid: And the said Ignatius Pigman by his attorney aforesaid, as before, defends the force and injury, when and soforth. and saith that he did not undertake and promise in manner and form as the said Samuel above hath declared against him and of this he putteth himself upon the bountry and soforth. and for further plea in this behalf the said Ignatius by leave of the Court here for this purpose first had and obtained according to the form of the Statute in such case lately made and provided saith that the said Samuel ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him because he saith that the said Samuel at the time of exhibiting his original writ aforesaid was and still is indebted to the said Ignatius in more money than is due or owing from him the said Ignatius to the said Samuel upon or by reason of the several promises and undertakings in the said Declaration mentioned that is to say, in the sum of two hundred Pounds current money of Maryland for so much money before that time had and received by the said Samuel for the use of the said Ignatius and also in the further sum of two hundred pounds of like money for divers goods wares and merchandizes before then sold and delivered by the said Ignatius to the said Samuel at the special instance and request of the said Samuel. And also in the further sum of two hundred Pounds of like money for six Hogsheads of Tobacco before then sold and delivered by the said Ignatius to the said Samuel and at the special instance and request of the said Samuel, that is to say, at Montgomery bounty aforesaid which said several sums of money are still unpaid to the said Ignatius to the said Samuel upon or by reason of the said several promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, to wit, at Montgomery bounty aforesaid And the said Ignatius is ready and now offereth to sett off so much of the said several sums so due and owing to the said Ignatius as aforesaid as is sufficient to satisfy the money or Damages justly due or payable to the said Samuel by reason of the said promises in the said Declaration mentioned. and this the said Ignatius is ready to verify. and therefore prays Judgment if the said Samuel

Samuel ought to have or maintain his said action against him and soforth. And the said Samuel in like manner and soforth. And the said Samuel saith that he by any thing in the plea of the said Ignatius secondly in bar above pleaded to be precluded from having his action aforesaid ought not because he saith that he is not indebted to the said Ignatius in more money than is due and owing from the said Ignatius to the said Samuel upon the premises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned, as the said Ignatius hath in and by his said plea in that behalf alledged above and this also he prays may be enquired of by the bountry and the said Ignatius doth the like and soforth: Therefore let a jury thereupon appear before the Court here on the second Tuesday of May next, by whom, and soforth. and who neither, and soforth. to recognize, and soforth. because as well, and soforth the same day is given to the said parties then and there and soforth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said second Tuesday of October being the fourteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, comes again into the General Court here, as well the said Samuel Davidson by his attorney aforesaid, as the said Ignatius Pigman by his attorney aforesaid: and the said Ignatius Pigman by his attorney aforesaid, relinquishing the averment aforesaid, above by him pretended, says, that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Samuel Davidson so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the aforesaid Samuel Davidson the aforesaid sum of one hundred and fifty seven Pounds eleven shillings and ten pence current money, in such manner and form as the aforesaid Samuel Davidson above against him hath complained, nor but that the aforesaid Samuel Davidson hath sustained Damage by reason of the detention of the debt aforesaid, to the aforesaid sum of one hundred Pounds current money, in like manner and form as the aforesaid Samuel Davidson within against him hath complained. besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended. and soforth. And hereupon, the aforesaid Samuel Davidson by his attorney aforesaid prays Judgment for his debt aforesaid. so as aforesaid confessed, together with his Damages so as aforesaid acknowledged, as also for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended, to him to be adjudged, and soforth. Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Samuel Davidson recover against the said Ignatius Pigman as well the said sum of one hundred and fifty seven Pounds eleven shillings and ten
