Whereupon the said John Purviance Esquire is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several Oaths prescribed by Law, and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion. —

William Kilty and James Winchester Esquires who were appointed to examine William M'Mechen Esquire as to his abilities and knowledge of the Law, repat as follows, to wit; In obedience to the above rule, we hereby certify to the Court, that we have examined William M'Mechen Esquire as to his abilities & knowledge of the Law, and are of opinion that he is well qualified to be admitted as an attorney of this Court. —

May 10th 1797. — Wm. Kilty. — J. Winchester. —

Whereupon the said William M'Mechen Esquire is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several Oaths prescribed by Law, and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion.

On application of William Blaggett, Samuel Hughes and Thomas Contee Bowie to be admitted as attornies of this Court, the Court appoint James Winchester & Joshua Dorsey Esquires to examine the said Blaggett as to his knowledge & abilities of the Law; they also appoint Samuel Johnston and Robert Smith Esquires to examine the said Hughes; they also appoint Philip Barton Key & John T. Mason Esquires to examine the said Bowie as to their abilities & knowledge of the Law, and repat the same to this Court. —

Robert Sinclair Sheriff of Allegany County is fined Two Dollars for non attendance. —

Richard Ridgely and John Campbell Esquires who were appointed to examine Henry Ridgely Warfield Esquire as to his abilities and knowledge of the Law, repat as follows to wit. — We the subscribers appointed by the Honorable Judges of the General Court to examine Henry Ridgely Warfield Esquire with respect to his knowledge of the Law. Do hereby certify that we are of opinion that the said Henry Ridgely Warfield is well qualified for the practise of the Law in the General Court and we do therefore repat to the Honorable Judges accordingly. Witness our hands this 11th day of May 1797. — Rd. Ridgely — To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court. — J. Campbell.

Whereupon the said Henry Ridgely Warfield is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several Oaths prescribed by Law and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion. —

James Winchester and Joshua Dorsey Esquires who were appointed to examine William Blaggett Esquire as to his abilities and knowledge of the Law, repat as follows to wit. — In Obedience to the above rule, we certify to the Honorable the Judges of the General Court that we have examined William Blagett Esquire touching his abilities and knowledge in the Law, and are of opinion that he is well qualified to be admitted an attorney of this Court; May 12. 1797. — J. Winchester. — J. Dorsey. —

Whereupon the said William Blagett Esquire is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several oaths prescribed by Law, and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion. —

Philip Barton Key and John Thompson Mason Esquires who were appointed to examine Thomas Contee Bowie Esquires as to his abilities and knowledge of the Law, report as follows to wit. — We certify to the Court that in our Judgment and opinion Thomas Contee Bowie Esquire is qualified in point of abilities and knowledge of the Law, to be admitted a practising attorney of this Court. Philip B. Key. John T. Mason.

May 11th 1797. — —

Whereupon the said Thomas Contee Bowie Esquire is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several oaths prescribed by Law, and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion. —

Samuel Johnston and Robert Smith Esquires who were appointed to examine Samuel Hughes Esquire as to his abilities and knowledge of the Law, repat as follows to wit. — We are of opinion that Samuel Hughes Esquire is qualified to be an attorney of the General Court of Maryland. — Sam. Johnston. — R. Smith. —

Whereupon the said Samuel Hughes Esquire is admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualifies as such by taking and repeating the several oaths prescribed by Law, and signing a declaration of his belief in the Christian Religion. —

The State of Maryland against Abraham Karns. } Indictment. — The said Karns being brought into Court by the Sheriff of Washington County and being arraigned, pleads not Guilty. — He is therefore committed to the custody of the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County there to remain until &c Engelhard Yeiser against Enoch Bayley. } Case. — Judgment to nar for Damages and costs: Damages to be released on payment of £ 350. Dollars and 20s. Cents, with Interest thereon from fifteenth of November 1794 and costs. — — D. M'Mechen for Plff. — L. Martin for Defdt.