John Hanbury and John Lloyd against
Anthony Addison admor. of Henry Addison

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the third day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven. the said John Hanbury and John Lloyd by William Cooke their attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here, of and upon a judgment in the said Court rendered, a writ of the State of Maryland of fieri facias, to the sheriff of Prince Georges County directed in the words and of the tenor following, to wit.

The State of Maryland, &c. To the sheriff of Prince Georges County, Greeting. Whereas John Hanbury and John Lloyd lately in our General Court, on the second Tuesday of October in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety two and by judgment of the same Court, recovered against Anthony Addison late of Prince Georges County Gentleman administrator of all and singular the Goods and Chattels rights and Credits which were of Henry Addison late of Prince Georges County deceased at the time of his death, otherwise called Henry Addison Clerk late of patomack in the province of Maryland now of South Molton Street London who died Intestate as it is said the sum of five hundred pounds Current money a certain debt, and also the quantity of eight hundred and ten pounds of tobacco, for their damages which they had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of that debt, as for their Costs and Charges, by them about their suit in

In that behalf expended, whereof the said Anthony Addison administrator aforesaid is Convicted as it appears to us of record: To be levied of the Goods and Chattels which were of the said Henry Addison at the time of his death remaining to be administered in the hands and possession of the said Anthony if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he had not then the damages Costs and Charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper goods and Chattels of the said Anthony and whereas also in our said Court before the judges thereof on the second Tuesday of October anno domini seventeen hundred and ninety six it was considered that the aforesaid John Hanbury and John Lloyd should have their Execution against the aforesaid Anthony Addison administrator as aforesaid as well for the debt damages Costs and Charges aforesaid, as also the quantity of six hundred and sixty seven pounds of tobacco, which to the said John Hanbury and John Lloyd in our said Court was adjudged according to the form of the Statute in such Case made and provided for their Costs and Charges which they had sustained by delay of the Execution aforesaid, whereof the same Anthony Addison administrator aforesaid is Convict as it likewise appeareth of record, to be levied of the Goods and Chattels which were of the said Henry Addison at the time of his death in the hands of the said Anthony remaining to be administered if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he had and if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he had not then the damages and several Costs and Charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper Goods and Chattels of the said Anthony Addison. Therefore we Command you that of the Goods and Chattels which were of the aforesaid Henry Addison at the time of his death in the hands and Custody of the aforesaid Anthony Addison administratrix as aforesaid being to be administered in your bailiwick you cause to be made and levied the debt damages Costs and Charges aforesaid, if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath, and if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath not then the Costs and Charges aforesaid to be made and levied of the proper Goods and Chattels of the said Anthony Addison and when you shall have the said sum of money and quantities of tobacco or any part thereof so made and levied that you have the same before the judges of our said General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis
