Philip Brashear's Lessee against Thomas Hewitt

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the twenty third day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety five, John Stout Lessee of Philip Brashears by Philip Barton Key his attorney sued out of the General Court a declaration in Ejectment in manner and form following to wit.

Western shore, State of Maryland, ss. Walter Neal late of Prince Georges County) was attached to answer unto John Stout of a plea wherefore with force and arms and so forth, into all that tract or parcel of Plantable Land called Brashears Meadow lying and being in the County aforesaid with the appurtenances containing Acres of Land which Philip Brashears to him the said John demised for a term not yet past he the said Walter did enter and him the said John from his farm aforesaid did eject and other harms to him the said John did to the great damage of him the said John and against the peace dignity and good government of the State of Maryland and so forth, And whereupon the said John Stout by Philip Barton Key his Attorney complains that whereas the aforesaid Philip Brashears on the first day of January in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety two at Prince Georges County aforesaid had demised unto him the said John the said premises with the appurtenances thereunto belonging to have and to occupy the same premises with the appurtenances to him the said John and his assigns from the third day of January then last past until the end and term of fifteen years then next following fully to be complete and ended by virtue of which demise the aforesaid John into the premises aforesaid with the appurtenances did enter and was thereof possessed. And the said John
