John Snowden's Lessee against John Ridgely Jen.t

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the twenty seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven Titus Fee Simple, lessee of John Snowden by Richard Ridgely his attorney, declared in the General Court here against Timothy No title, in a plea of Trespass and Ejectment, with a notice thereto annexed, in form following, to wit.

Western Shore of Maryland Ann Arundel County, to wit. Timothy No title late of Ann Arundel County, planter, was attached to answer unto Titus Fee Simple in a plea, wherefore with force and arms into all that Tract of Plantable Land situate and lying in Ann Arundel County called Sappingtons Delight containing one hundred and thirty five acres with the appurtenances, which John Snowden to the said Titus demised for a Term of years which is not yet past, he the said Timothy did enter and him the said Titus from his Farm aforesaid did eject and other harms to him the said Titus then and there did, to the great Damage of the said Titus and against the peace, Goverment and dignity of the State and &c. And whereupon the said Titus by Richard Ridgely, his attorney complains, that whereas the aforesaid John Snowden on the second day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven at the County aforesaid, had demised to him, the said Titus, the Tract of Land aforesaid and premises, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging: To have and occupy the said Tract of Land and premises with the appurtenances, unto him the said Titus and his assigns from the first day of April then last past until the full End and Term of Ten years then next following and fully to be complete and ended, by virtue of which said demise, the said Titus into the aforesaid Tract of Land and premises with the
