was much deeper Twenty years ago than it appears at this time, this Deponent further saith that the said Creek forked some distance from the mouth and left a small Island of marsh in said Creek and further that the marsh on the West side of said Creek was fed by the waters which flowed out of said Creek and the place considered by me as the two Bars that formed the mouth of Middle Creek lay a small distance on the South of the inlet to said marsh. And further this Deponent saith not. Taken on the survey the 28th of April 1800. — — Jeremiah Biddeson. —

The Deposition of John Stansbury aged about forty six years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that three years ago last June that Moses Galloway deceased and Christian Davis deceased shewed this place now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor to him the said Stansbury which place was shewn to them by Edmond Stansbury, Christopher Dukes and Jarvis Biddeson to be the beginning of Dickson Neck and further this Deponent saith that W. R. Dallas now Plaintiff brought forth Daniel Davis as an evidence to prove the beginning of Dicksons Neck and that this evidence proved that he knew nothing of said beginning, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey the 28th day of April 1800. — John D. Stansbury. —

The Deposition of John D Stansbury aged forty six years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that the place now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor in the mouth of Middle Creek about six perches from the mouth of said Creek up said Creek that he the said Deponent had frequently caught perch with the hook and line at which time being in a boat, but now being dammed in with logs and dirt made by me the Deponent it is hard land and that he the Deponent frequently has paddled a boat from one side to the other on a high tide where the trees and stumps now stands on the side of the marsh and further this Deponent saith he hath paadled a boat the distance of one quarter of a mile up the said Creek, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey 28th of April 1800. — — — John D. Stansbury. —

The Deposition of John D. Stansbury aged forty six years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty, deposeth and saith, about Twenty three or four years ago this Stump now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor was then a tree and shewn to me by Thomas Stansbury my Father to be a line tree in the head line of Deasons Neck which line running near a mulberry tree standing on the East side of the road and further this Deponent saith that his Father informed him that his mother shewed him this tree who got her information by seeing it run when she was a girl, and that he this Deponent saith that his Father told him that he had been shewn this tree by many others to be in the line as above mentioned, and further saith not; Taken on the survey the 29th of April 1800. John D. Stansbury.

The Deposition of Vincent Green aged fifty one years being first duly summoned and sworn deposeth and saith, that on the twentieth day of June ninety six that he the said Deponent was at the execution of a Commission of Daniel Stansbury and that he the said Deponent saw Moses Galloway sworn on said Commission, and the said Moses told the said Commissioners that the place now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor by me the Deponent was shewn to him the said Moses by Jarvis Biddison, Edmond Stansbury to be the beginning of Deasons Neck, and further this Deponent saith not. Taken on the Survey 29th of April 1800. — — Vincent Green. —

The Deposition of William Clark aged fifty years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that about thirty years ago he being in Company with old John Mallor helling the lane and cumming up the Creek this Deponent heard the said Mallor say and threw up his hand and said up there and pointing towards a point and said there was or ought to stand a bound tree of your Grand Fathers land, and further saith not; Taken on the survey 29 of April 1800. — — — William Clark. —

The Deposition of James Fowler aged about Fifty eight years being first sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that thirty years ago she was in company with John Taylor and Richard Meaner near the place now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor and that the said John Taylor pointed up the side of the Hill which she now shews and said there stands or there did stand a bounded tree of Mr. Harrymans land, further saith that she has heard her Father George Harryman say that the bounded tree was moved and has heard that John Crisp was suspected for cutting it down or takeings it away the said John Crisp lived with Mr. Dallas and further saith not; Taken on the survey this 29th day of April 1800. — — Jaymer her + mark Fowler. —

The Deposition of Jeremiah Biddison aged about Forty years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith, that this Deponent and his Brother deceased was taken by John Taylor to the second tree of Sisters Hope and the beginning tree of Dundee and from there down the line to the third tree of Sisters Hope and the fourth tree of Dundee and there sat down and related circumstances concerning boundaries and amongst the rest told this Deponent that the bounded tree on the beginning tree of Shaws Fancy ought to