their and each and every of their rights members and appurtenances to him the said James Walton his heirs and assigns forever. I also give and bequeath to my said trusty friend James Walton all my personal estate. But if it so happens that my said friend James Walton should die before me whereby the said devise and bequest to him will be of no effect, I do upon that event give and devise all my said lands and real estate to my trusty friend John Bolton of Charles County and his heirs forever. and I do also on that event give and bequeath my personal estate to him the said John Bolton. Lastly I hereby appoint my said friend James Walton Executor of this my last will and testament and in case he happens to die before me, I on that event constitute and appoint my said friend John Bolton Executor of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling and making void all testaments and wills by me at any time heretofore made. In Witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal the day and year first above mentioned.

George Hunter (Seal)

Signed Sealed Published and declared by the said George Hunter as and for his testament and last will in the presences of us who have hereto subscribed as Witnesses at the request and in the presence of the said George Hunter. Bernard Didierick, Raphael Neale, Francis Yates, Charles County Sct. on the twenty first day of June 1779 came Bernard Didierick, Raphael Neale and Francis Yates Subscribing Witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of George Hunter late of said County deceased and made oath on the holy evangels that they did see the testator therein named sign and seal the same will and heard him publish and declare it to be his last will and testament that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehensions of sound and disposing mind and memory and that they severally subscribed their names as Witnesses to the said Will in the presence and at the request of the testator, and in the presence of each other.

Sworn Before, and Certified by.

Walter Hanson Reg. of Wills.

True Copy. Test,

Walter Hanson Reg. of Wills.

Admitted to be a true copy. P. B Key Atty. Deft.

The Plaintiff also produced and read in evidence to the Jury a Declaration with the several endorsements thereon bearing date on the fifteenth day of October in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three which is before stated and set forth in the Bill of Exceptions first herein before mentioned. The Plaintiff also gave in evidence to the Jury that James Walton the devisee in the said will of George Hunter mentioned died on the third day of October in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three under and by virtue of an act of Assembly "Entitled" An act for securing certain estates and property for the support and use of the ministers of the Roman Catholic Religion" duly made execute and acknowledge pursuant to the said act of Assembly a declaration in writing under his hand and seal sufficient and operative to vest in the lessee of the Plaintiff all his right interest and estate in and to the said land called Ayno and which is as follows to wit; I James Walton of the County of St. Marys and the State of Maryland do by virtue of these presents make known publish and declare in conformity and agreeably to an act of Assembly of the State of Maryland Entitled "an act for securing certain estates and property for the support and uses of the ministers of the Roman Catholic Religion that the real property here after specified viz. Inigos Manor and St. Georges Island lying in Saint Marys County and containing about three thousand acres; the Lands in St. Marys County commonly called Chapels Lands containing twenty acres more or less. Britons Neck and outlett lying in St. Marys County containing seven hundred acres more or less, St. Thomas Manor lying in Charles County containing four thousand acres more or less, and the several lesser tracts adjoining that part of the said Manor lying on the east of Port Tobacco Creek: Carrollsbury lying in Prince Georges County and containing two thousand acres more or less: Chaneys Plantation adjoining thereto and containing one hundred and fifty acres more or less: Ridgely and Tylers Lot in the said County and containing sixty four acres more or less: Hainault commonly called Ayno Bright Seat and little Bright Seat lying in Ann Arundel County and containing seven hundred acres more or less: Thomas's Beginning lying in Harford County and containing fifty acres more or less: the addition to Thomas's beginning adjoining thereto and containing sixty five acres more or less as part of a tract of land called Maidens Bower Secured lying in Harford County and containing eighteen acres more or less: a part of a tract of land lying also in Harford County on deer Creek commonly called Pogmods and containing thirty six acres more or less. two lots of ground in Baltimore Town in Baltimore County Mountain Prospect lying in Frederick County and containing Six hundred acres more or less; the lots of ground belonging to me in Frederick Town in Frederick County my lands on or near little Bohemia River in Cecil County containing about Eleven hundred acres more or less; my lands at or adjoining St. Josephs in Talbot County containing one hundred and forty four acres more or less; and also all other my lands and real estate whatsoever in the State of Maryland and all the mixed and personal property annexed and appertaining to these several estates hath been and now is held by me the said James Walton under a confidential or implied trust for the use benefit and maintenance of the ministers of the Roman Catholic Church now exercising their ministerial functions within the United States of America: agreeably to the rules and discipline of their Church, and who were formerly members of the religious society, heretofore known by the name of the Society of Jesus. - In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this third day of October Anno Domini 1793.

Signed Sealed and Delivered in presence of Henry Barnes, H. H. Chapman.

James Walton (Seal)