as well the said Nicholas Hammond Gentleman, who prosecuteth for the said State as the afs? James Hutchings by William Hayward his Attorney and further proces was thereon continued until the Monday before the first Tuesday in March then next. At which said Monday before the first Tuesday in March, cometh as well John Leeds Bozman Gentleman who prosecuteth for the said State, as the afs? James Hutchings by William Hayward his Attorney, and further proces was thereon continued until the Monday before the first Tuesday in June then next — At which said Monday before the first Tuesday in June cometh as well the said John Leeds Bozman Gentleman who prosecuteth for the said State, as the afs? James Hutchings by William Hayward his Attorney, and further proces was thereon continued until the monday before the first Tuesday in November then next — At which said Monday before the first Tuesday in November cometh as well the said John Leeds Bozman Gentleman, who prosecuteth for the said State as the afs? James Hutchings by William Hayward his Attorney, and further proces was thereon continued until the Monday before the first Tuesday in March then next — At which said Monday before the first Tuesday in March, cometh as well the said John Leeds Bozman who for the said State doth prosecute, as the afs? James Hutchings by William Hayward his Attorney, and the afs? James Hutchings by his Attorney afs?, produceth to the Court here a writ of Certiorari of the State of Maryland to the Justices afs? directed, the tenor whereof ensues in the following words and figures, to wit; The State of Maryland ss. To the Justices of Talbot County greeting: Whereas lately in our said County Court Court of Talbot, James Hutchings, late of Talbot County Yeoman, was presented by the Oath of twelve good and lawful Men of the County afs?, for feloniously stealing taking and carrying away five Hogs, of the price of two hundred pounds of Tobacco each, of the goods and chattels of a certain Dorrington Wilson late of the said County: And we being willing for certain reasons, that the Indictment afs? with the Records of all the proceedings thereon had should by you be certified to us: We therefore command you, that the Indictment afs? together with the Records of all proceedings thereon, as fully and entirely with all things touching the same, as it now remains before you, by whatsoever name or names the said James Hutchings may be called in the same, to the Judges of our General Court, to be held at Easton, the second Tuesday of April next, you certify together with this writ: Witness the Honorable Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court, the first day of October Anno Domini 1789. Issued this 6th March 1790 — James Earle Clk.

Which being read and heard the same is by the Court allowed: and it is thereupon ordered by the said Court that the Records and proceedings afs? together with all things relating to the same be accordingly transmitted, and certified immediately before the Honorable the Judges of the General Court, for the Eastern Shore of the State of Maryland now sitting at Talbot Court house in the County afs?, that the said Judges may proceed thereon, and do what shall appear to them of right ought to be done &c — Benj? Stevens Clk.

Be it remembered that the following presentment was delivered to the Court by the Grand Jury at March Court seventeen hundred and eighty eight, and then affixed among the Original papers relating to the Record afs?, and now remaining in the Office, to wit; We the Grand Jaquest for the body of Talbot County do present James Hutchings for stealing five head of Hogs, pursuing them and killing one of said Hogs they being the property of Coll? Dorington Wilson deceased, on or about the first day of December 1787 — Joseph Bawley, Foreman — Test, Frances Reynolds —

Talbot County, to wit; I hereby certify that the Record and proceedings above and within described were truly and faithfully taken from the Records and proceedings of Talbot County Court, now remaining in my Office — In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed the publick Seal of my Office this seventh day of April in the Year 1790 —

(Seal)

Benj? Stevens Clk of Talbot County Court.

At the foot of the aforegoing Record was the following Recognizance, to wit; It was ordered by Talbot County Court, at March Term 1790 that Francis Reynolds recognize for his appearance before the Honorable the Judges of the General Court, to be held at Easton on the second Tuesday in April next; who entered into a Recognizance as follows, to wit — Francis Reynolds of Talbot County planter, acknowledged himself himself to be held and firmly unto the State of Maryland, in the full and just sum of twenty pounds current money of Maryland, to be levied of his body goods and chattels, lands and tenements for the use of the said State — With condition to the said Recognizance that if the said Francis Reynolds do and shall make his personal appearance before the Honorable the Judges of the of the General Court, to be held at Easton, on the second Tuesday in April next, to testify on behalf of the State against James Hutchings for Felony, and that he attend the said Court from day to day, and do not depart the same without the leave thereof, then this recognizance to be void, otherwise of force — And thereupon here comes Luther Martin Esquire, who for the State afs? in this behalf doth prosecute, and the afs? James Hutchings by his Attorney afs? also comes here into Court; And immediately being asked, how he of the premisses afs? in the Indictment afs? specified, and above charged upon him will be acquitted; the said James Hutchings saith that he is not guilty thereof; and for good and evil doth put himself upon the Country: And Luther Martin Esquire Attorney of the said State of Maryland, who for the said State in this behalf doth prosecute thereof in like manner &c — Wherefore it is commanded to the several Sheriffs of the Eastern Shore, that they should cause to come here immediately, before the Judges afs? twelve &c who neither &c to recognize &c