And the said William Stevens's Lessee by his Attorney aforesaid saith that in the Record and Process aforesaid and also in the giving of the Judgment in the Plea aforesaid it is manifestly erred in this; to wit, that the Judgment aforesaid was given in form aforesaid for the said Levi Houston and Daniel Young, against him the said William Stevens's Lessee; where by the Laws of the Land Judgment should have been given for the said William Stevens's Lessee against the said Levi Houston and Daniel Young, and this he is ready to verify. And the said William Stevens's Lessee by his Attorney aforesaid, prayed that the said Levi Houston and Daniel Young might be warned by a Writ of the State of Maryland to be and appear before the Judges of our General Court to be held at Easton the second Tuesday of April then next; and it was granted unto him; by which said writ the Sheriff of Worcester County aforesaid was commanded that by good and lawful men of his Bailiwick he should make known the said Levi Houston and Daniel Young that they should be and appear before the Judges of our General Court to be held at Easton the second Tuesday of April then next, to hear the Record and Proceedings and also the Errors assigned thereon, if to them it should seem expedient: And further to do and receive what our Judges of the said Court should then and there consider concerning them in this behalf, and that he should have then and there the names of those before whom he should make the same known unto them and that writ the same day was given to the said William Stevens's Lessee. At which day to wit, the second Tuesday of April in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety two, here came the said William Stevens's Lessee by his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Worcester County aforesd. made return, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to him directed, he had caused the said Levi Houston to know that he should be and appear before before the Judges aforesaid at the time and place aforesaid, and so forth, as by the same writ he was Commanded; but that he had nothing in his Bailiwick whereby he could make the same known unto the aforesaid Daniel Young. And the said Levi Houston according to the warning given him in this behalf came here into Court by William Tilghman his Attorney, whereupon the said William Stevens's Lessee by his Attorney aforesaid saith that the said Daniel Young is dead, and that he died since the last Continuance, to wit, at the County aforesaid, and thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said Parties and their Attornies aforesaid and by order of the Court here thereon, was defered until the second Tuesday of September then next.

At which day to wit, the second Tuesday of September here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid, whereupon the said William Stevens's Lessee by his Attorney aforesaid said that in the Record and Process aforesaid and also in the giving of the Judgment aforesaid it is manifestly erred, alledging the error aforesaid by him in form aforesaid alledged, and prayed that the Judgment aforesaid for the error aforesaid and others in the Record and Process aforesaid being may be reversed, annulled and entirely for nothing esteemed; and that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record and Process aforesaid as the matter aforesaid above for error assigned; and the said Levi Houston by his said Attorney said that neither in the Record and Process aforesaid nor in the giving of the Judgment aforesaid, nor in any thing is there error; and he prays in like manner that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record and Process aforesaid as the matter aforesaid for error assigned. And because the Court here is not yet advised what Judgment to give of and upon the Premises day thereupon is given to the Parties aforesaid; to wit, the second Tuesday of April then next following, to hear their Judgment of and upon the Premises aforesd.
