Henry Trader against William Goddard Special Bail of Nathan Culver

Memorandum,

The Plaintiff in this Cause by William Cooke his Attorney, sued out the State of Marylands Writ of Scire facias, which ensues in the following Words. The State of Maryland, &c. To the Sheriff of Somerset County Greeting: Whereas at a General Court held at Easton, the second Tuesday of September, Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and eighty nine, before the Honorable Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire, then Chief Justice of our said Court and others his Associates, then Judges of the same Court, a certain Henry Trader by consideration and Judgment of the same Court, recovered against Nathan Culver, late of Somerset County as well a certain debt of four hundred pounds current money as also the Quantity of ninety four pounds and two fifths of a pound of Tobacco, which unto the same Henry Trader was adjudged as well for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his Costs and charges by him about his Suit in that behalf expended; whereof the same Nathan Culver was convicted as of Record is manifest. And although Judgment be thereof rendered as aforesaid, Execution nevertheless remaineth to be done. And whereas also before the rendering that Judgment, to wit, the third Tuesday of June, Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty eight, before the Justices of Somerset County Court, a certain William Goddard of Somerset County then and there in the same Court being in his proper person became pledge and Mainucaptor for the aforesaid Nathan Culver, that if it should happen that the same Nathan Culver in the Plea aforesaid should be convicted, then the same Mainucaptor granted that as well the Debt aforesaid, as all such Damages, Costs and Charges which to the aforesaid Henry Trader in that part by the Court should be adjudged, of his Body, Lands and Chattels should be made and to the use of the aforesaid Henry Trader levied, if it should happen the same Nathan Culver, the Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges aforesaid should not pay, or his Body to the public Prison of Somerset County aforesaid by that occasion should not render: Nevertheless the aforesaid Nathan Culver, the debt, damages, Costs and
