Charges aforesaid, unto the aforesaid Henry Trader hath not paid, nor himself to the public prison of Somerset County aforesaid by that occasion hath not rendered, as by the Information of the same Henry Trader we have understood: Wherefore the same Henry Trader hath besought us to provide for him a proper remedy in this behalf; and We being willing that what is just in this part should be done, do therefore command you that by good and lawful men of your Bailiwick, you make known unto the same William Goddard that he be and appear before the Judges of our General Court to be held at Easton, the second Tuesday of September next, to shew cause if any for himself he hath, or to say know ye why the aforesaid Henry Trader, Execution against him for the debt, damages, Costs and Charges aforesaid to have ought not, according to the force, form and effect of the Recognizance aforesaid, if to him it shall seem meet, and further to do and receive all and singular those things which by our Judges aforesaid of him in this part shall be adjudged; and have you then and there this Writ, Witness the Honorable Samuel Chase Esquire, chief Judge of our said Court the tenth day of April Anno Domini 1792.. Issued the twelfth day of June 1792. W.Cooke. James Earle Clk.

At which said second Tuesday in September to wit, to wit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety two, being the day of the return of the aforegoing Writ, came into Court here the said Henry Trader by William Cooke his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Somerset County aforesaid, to whom the said Writ was directed, came also and made return thereof to the Court here thus indorsed, "Made known before John Leatherbury & Geo: Jones so answers George Robertson Shff." and the said William Goddard by Luther Martin his Attorney, also came into Court here: Thereupon further process of and upon the Premises between the Parties aforesaid, with the Consent of the said Parties and their Attorneys aforesaid, and by an order of Court thereon, was continued until the second Tuesday in April then next.. At which said second Tuesday in April, to wit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety three came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid; And the said Henry Trader by his Attorney aforesaid, prayed that the said William Goddard should be ruled to answer to the said Writ of Scire facias by the second Tuesday in September then next, or that by default thereof, Judgment should be rendered against him, and to him it was granted; The same day was given to the said Henry Trader there &c.. At which said second Tuesday in September, to wit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety three, came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the said William Goddard by his Attorney aforesaid, defended the force and injury when &c. and says, that the said Henry his Execution against him of the Debt and Damages aforesaid to have ought not, because he saith that the said Nathan Sulver after the Judgment aforesaid and before the day of the Impetration of his said Writ of Scirefacias, to wit, on the first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two did pay to the said Henry as well the aforesaid sum of four hundred pounds current money, as also nine hundred and ninety four pounds and two fifths of a pound of Tobacco aforesaid in full Satisfaction of the Judgment aforesaid at the County aforesaid, and this he is ready to verify Wherefore he prays Judgment if the said Henry his Execution aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought and so forth.. Thereupon further process of and upon the Premises between the Parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said Parties and their Attorneys, and by an order of
