

On Board Bark Albatross Barker & making a passage.

Wednesday January 12th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Homeward Bound From Bay of Islands

Thursday Saturday February 13th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Sunday February 14th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Tuesday February 15th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

On Board Bark Albatross Barker & on our way home

Tuesday February 15th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Wednesday February 16th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Thursday February 17th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Friday February 18th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Saturday February 19th 1870

The first part of these 24 hours pleasant & we had all sail set & steering S.W. for mangarui with the wind from the E. & middle part pleasant. We had all sail set & still steering for mangarui & wind from the E. Latter part the same we anchored in mangarui harbor about 10. A.M. 7th

Homeward Bound