

on Board Bark Abner Barber, Dan her Voyage Home from

79 Sunday May 1st 1870
The first part of this 24 hours pleasant & calm we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. we had all hands on deck employed at taking out for floor & bread to put between decks & a spinning the ship a third & a half...

80 Monday May 2nd 1870
The first part of this 24 hours pleasant & calm we had all sail set to trying to bring to steer N.W. by N. Middle part light winds & some squalls of rain...

81 Tuesday May 3rd 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

82 Wednesday May 4th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

83 Thursday May 5th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

84 Friday May 6th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

85 Saturday May 7th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

86 Sunday May 8th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

87 Monday May 9th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...

88 Tuesday May 10th 1870
The first part of this 24 hours calm & we had all sail set to trying to steer N.W. by N. Middle part about the same kind of weather...