

Remarks on board Scho: Camero Master L. Lopez

Fri. March 18th 1921
This day steady wind & clear weather.
All sails set. At 7 1/2 p.m. we drop anchor at port-au-prince, Dominica.
End of day.

Sat.

March 19th 1921

This day fresh Trade & clear weather.
Ship laying at anchorage. Employed scrapping ships and duff & pumping out water of the hull. End of day.

Sunday

March 20th 1921

This day light Trade & fine weather.
Ship laying at anchorage at port-au-prince.
End of day.

Mon.

March 21st 1921

This day laying at port-au-prince light Trade and fine weather. Employed Clean up the ships one employed from shore Coasting ships. End of day.

Tues.

March 22nd 1921

This day laying at port fine weather.
Employed repairing ships. Capt. went to ship the crew. End of day.

Wed.

March 23rd 1921

This day laying at port fine weather.
Employed Coasting ship making water.
End of day.

Thurs.

March 24th 1921

This day light Trade & fine weather.
Vessel laying at anchorage. Employed making water & other duty. End of day.

Remarks on board Scho: Camero Master L. Lopez

Fri. March 25th 1921

This day laying at port. light breeze
and squally with rain no work to day.
End of day.

Sat.

March 26th 1921

This day laying at port-au-prince. strong Trade & squally. Employed making water and other duty. End of day.

Sunday

March 27th 1921

Ship laying at port. light
Trade & fine weather.

Monday

March 28th 1921

This day fresh Trade with lots rain.
Ship laying at anchorage. Employed making water & wood. End of day.

Tues.

March 29th 1921

This day light Trade with lots rain.
Employed taking wood. End of day.

Wed.

March 30th 1921

This day light breeze & fine weather.
at 9 a.m. we sail to St. Eustatius along with the tug. Ship making lots water. End of day.

Thurs.

March 31st 1921

This day fresh Trade & clear weather.
all sails set. at 9 a.m. we drop anchor
at St. Eustatius to gather with schooner athlete. End of day.

Friday

April 1st 1921

Ship laying at St. Eustatius. fine weather.
Employed put up rigging & other duty.
End of day.