

Saturday June 27th
No Ob. Smoke all this day with strong breezes from the first part. ~~Some~~ ^{Some} a middle and latter part fresh breezes from the same quarter. ~~Some~~ No Ob. Under a most reefed main top sail. The Janus in company. At 1 P.M. how to heading to the westward and so on.

Sunday June 28th
Lat 23 55 N. Long 141 30 Smoke all this day with fresh breezes from S. The ship heading to W.
The first and middle parts. The latter part to N. by the under easy. The Janus in company and so ends.

Monday June 29th
Lat 21 40 N. Long 140 48 Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The ship heading a number of courses during the day. Spoke the Janus. The latter part all hands employed in sailing down yards and the main top gallant and top mast. And so on.

Tuesday June 30th
Lat 21 12 N. Long 140 40 Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The ship heading a number of courses during the day. Cruising. All hands employed in getting masts and yards aloft. One sail in sight and so on.

Wednesday July 1st No Ob. The wind and weather the same as yesterday. All hands employed. The first part on sail and rigging. Two sails in sight. Spoke the William Collins of Honolulu, and the Janus. The Island of St. Peter's Island in sight the latter part. And so on.

Thursday July 2nd Lat 20 40 N. Long 140 32 Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The ship heading the Island of St. Peter's in sight. The watch employed in ship duty and so on.

Friday July 3rd
No Ob. Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The ship heading St. Peter's. And Ormy peak in sight during the day and so on.

Saturday July 4th
No Ob. Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. At 1 P.M. Ormy peak bearing 14 miles and the ship in whaling lower ed and off top. The middle part hooked the whales along side. The latter part cut them in. The latter bearing. The And whales in sight lowered for down and so on.

Sunday July 5th
No Ob. Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The ship heading St. Peter's. At 1 P.M.
the latter part cut him. Spoke the Janus hoiling having got one whale. It did not in sight and so on.

Monday July 6th
No Ob. Fine weather all this day with light breezes from S. The first and middle parts. The latter a fresh breeze from S. E. The ship steered by the wind and on both tacks during the day. Berling. And so on.

Tuesday July 7th
No Ob. Equally with the strong breezes from S. Most of the day. Finshed sailing S. M. The Janus in sight to windward and spoke his last at sack with 3 solid whales. The ship steered by the wind and on both tacks during the day.

Wednesday July 8th No Ob. Smoke weather all this day with strong breezes from S. M. The ship steered by the wind heading to W. under double reefed top sails. And so on. One man off duty sick.