

Commences with a light S. W. wind and good weather middle part the same later part thick at six A. M. lowered two boats at ten came on board with no success at five A. M. got the ship underway at one p. m. dived the port buoy in six fathoms of water of water crew employed in trying out Friday, 6

This day commences with a strong N. wind and thick weather middle and later part clear at three A. M. got under way and worked to S. at eight P. M. dived the port buoy in two fathoms of water finished trying out Saturday, 7

Commences with a strong N. E. wind and snow squalls middle and later part fine weather crew employed in storing down gained the Irish Perry at three P. M. anchored in nine fathoms of water five ships in sight Sunday, 8

Commences with a strong N. E. wind and snow squalls middle a later part the same at one saw five ships spoke the Mearns crew employed in unloading ships as ends this day Monday, 9

Commences with a strong N. wind and variable middle and later part the same spoke several ships bound to visit the Trident Captained a whale the Live Oak ashore on Cape Barrow Tuesday, 10

Commences with a strong E. wind middle and later part the same at one p. m. raised a whale breaching waters for him but did not see him gain the crew vainly employed. Wednesday, 11

Commences with a fresh gale from the E. middle part the same later part more moderate crew employed in ships duty saw a ship bound to S. suppose it to be the L. C. Thursday, 12

Commences with a strong E. wind and good weather middle and later part the same crew employed in ships duty saw several whales the Active Captained one five ships in sight Friday, 13

Commences with a light breeze from the N. E. middle and later part the same crew employed in ships duty spoke the Nautilus gained the Trident no whales four ships in sight Saturday, 14

Commences with a strong N. W. wind and snow squalls middle and later part the same crew employed in ships duty three minutes in line dequise below paying so ends this day Sunday, 15

Commences with a strong N. W. and thick weather middle and later part clear crew vainly employed saw several whales one ship in sight as ends this day Monday, 16 Lat 74, 15

Commences with a light S. W. wind and clear weather middle part snow squalls later part a fresh gale from the S. the crew vainly employed one ship in sight Tuesday, 17

Commences with strong S. wind and thick weather middle part the same later part clear crew employed in ships duty one ship duty as ends this day Wednesday, 18

Commences with a strong N. E. wind and a thick snow storm middle part the same later part clear the crew employed in ships duty spoke the J. Allen, an. Bartholomew's and four whales seven ships in sight as ends this day Thursday, 19

Commences with a light N. E. wind and good weather middle part calm later part strong breeze crew employed in vainly things spoke the Northern Light and the Triton eight ships in sight Gained Friday, 20

Commences with light wind and variable middle and later part the same crew employed in ships duty saw several whales but not Bow Heads several ships in sight Saturday, 21

Commences with a strong N. E. wind and fine weather middle part the same later part thick snow storm crew employed in ships duty saw two Bow Heads spoke the ^{Barrett} ~~Barrett~~ also the Trident nine whales Sunday, 22

Commences with a strong N. W. and rain middle part the same later part snow crew employed in ships duty spoke the J. Allen nine ships in sight Cooper came on board ^{Parker} Monday, 23

Commences with a light N. wind and fine weather middle and later part the same the crew vainly employed spoke the Europa five not also five ships in sight saw two whales going quick to the N. Tuesday, 24