

Bark Active Of New Bedford Bound

Towards St Pauls Nov 1852

Wednesday Nov 3 rd	87.34 S 68.49 E	56 56	SW E			Remarks On Board Light air from SW and fine weather on night air at 3 AM the wind SW to SE latter part a fresh breeze from NW and fine weather saw 4 in backs
Thursday Nov 4 th	87.34 S 67.10	55 55	E by N NW by E			Light breeze from NW to E and fine weather removed the stays in the galley from forward aft on anchor A fresh variable breeze from E by N to NW by E and quite so saw 4 in backs and Blackfish
Friday Nov 5 th	89.52 S 78.38	56 56	NW by N N by E	SE		A fresh breeze from NW by N and cloudy streak SW by S on anchor Moderate breeze and fine weather
Saturday Nov 6 th	89.48 S 72.12	56 56	NNW N	SE by E		A moderate breeze from NNW and fine weather headed east by wind A strong breeze and anchor so
Sunday Nov 7 th	89.10 S 75.40	56 56	NE N by E	E		Strong breezes and cloudy headed to the S have two under double reefed Main top sail and Spencer
Monday Nov 8 th	88.32 S 78.30	57 55	NE N by E	SE		Comes in with a strong gale from NW and NW and cloudy with rain and fog on S breezes from NNW by E wind and weather continued about the same at 8 AM made the Island of St Paul bearing NE at 9 passed within 3 miles of the South end of the Island found an error of 30 miles in my Chronometer the ship being to the Eastward of where the Chronometer gave her
Tuesday Nov 9 th	87.08 S 82.20	56 56	N NNW	East		Strong gales and squally through out the 24 hours streak SE by E
Wednesday Nov 10 th	85.38 S	55 56	N N by E	SE by E		Strong variable breezes with peeping squalls of wind and rain