

1881

Bermarks on board Cape Horn Digion Wednesday Dec 14th

moderate

First part commenced with fresh breeze and pleasant weather. the Cook on duty again all hands on duty but the Boatsteerer and one man forward and they are getting along nicely. Middle part light breeze. Latter part light breeze.

Thursday Dec 15th

(got one man from shore to) (go with us)

First part commenced with moderate breeze and clear weather the doctor came off from shore, the Capt gave him an old boat from overhead to pay him for his services to us, set the doctor ashore again with his coat. Middle part light breeze, Latter part moderate breeze at 4 P.M. weighed anchor and commenced to work up the Coast

Friday Dec 16th

First part commenced with fresh breeze and clear weather beating up the Coast. washed the Starboard and Starboard boats out inside and Bright varnished the Starboard boat under the ceiling. Middle part moderate breeze. Latter part moderate breeze. Bright varnished the Starboard boat under the ceiling

Saturday Dec 17th

First part commenced with moderate breeze, painted the Starboard and Starboard boats outside. Middle part moderate breeze. Latter part moderate breeze, painted the Starboard and Starboard boats another coat outside. Cooper working on the house over the tryworks

Sunday Dec 18th

First part commenced with fresh breeze and clear weather. painted the Starboard boat inside. Middle part fresh breeze Latter part fresh breeze and foggy.

Monday Dec 19th

First part commenced with fresh breeze, working up the Coast. Middle part fresh breeze. Latter part fresh breeze. painted the Starboard boat inside.

Tuesday Dec 20th

First part commenced with fresh breeze and clear weather working up the Coast. Middle part fresh breeze. Latter part moderate breeze Bright varnished the Bow Boat under the ceiling

Wednesday Dec 21st

First part commenced with moderate breeze and cloudy weather. Bright varnished the Waist Boat under ceiling. Middle part strong breeze furlled the light sails. Latter part fresh breeze. set the light sails. painted the Waist and Bow boats outside

Thursday Dec 22nd

First part commenced with moderate breeze and pleasant weather broke out the run.
Middle part moderate breeze. Latter part light breeze. painted the Waist and Bow boats another coat outside