

Centurion

I left the Brig in new castle and paid my passage to sydney

I did not stop in sydney long before i shipped for England in a scotch clipper the Centurion of aberdeen we went to London after a passage of 3 months

Samuel Bodinton

i was paid of in London i stoped till all of my money was done there i shipped as quarter master of an East India ship she was an old fashioned Cargue called the Samuel Bodinton we had an East India crew we went to

Barathey and discharged our cargo and took in a nather one of seed for London i wrote home to tell them that i was coming for the first time a great many of our men died from the effect of the cold in the English Channel i forgot to say that we called at the island of Sant Helena

Joseph Clark

I left the ship in London and stoped a short time when i shipped in the Joseph Clark bound for new orleans

we made the passage in 40 days i left in new orleans and stoped a week

Reuben

when i joined the ship rebm for new goark near we arrived after 28 days passage i was soon on shore and on my way down long island sound bound for providence we near

I arrived the next morning after I got home in the morning after being away 14 years and a half but i could not stop long the devil followed me and soon had me afloat again (I may 1858)

George Fales of Providence 250 Tons

May the 15 1858 sailed from providence in the schooner George fales for philadelphia I went 2 voyages in her then i left they discharged all hand cargo ship she belonged to the line of packets that ran to philadelphia

James Martin

I joined the James martin she was a sister schooner and in the same line on the 13 july 1858 and went one voyage in her to philadelphia

J. F. Hill

then I shipped for the run to new york in the J F Hill schooner we went in 18 hours i came back to providence on the 11 of august

Wester

then went one trip to philadelphia in the schooner wester and back to providence

Isadora

September 13 1858 i shipped in the Isadora for baltimore arrived at baltimore 14 and took in a cargo for mobile arrived mobile first of november i left the next day and joined