

- 1871. -

of 25 miles. Being tired and sleepy, I having no money, not knowing where to get any thing to eat nor where to sleep, for the night I went down on the wharves to see if I could not get any thing to eat but I could not succeed in getting any thing, therefore I looked for a place to sleep. At 8 o'clock, I crawled in amongst a lot of wool that was piled on the wharves and there I slept till morning I arose at 8 o'clock and went, and looked around to get some thing to eat and at last succeeded in getting my breakfast. After Breakfast I went up town and I stood on the corner of George and Petty streets and a man came up to me and asked me if I was stopping anywhere, and I told him no where, and he told me to wait there till he came back and when he came back, I went ~~went~~ up to his house with him and he told me that I could stop with him, and as long as I liked till I got some work to do and I stopped there till the first of April 1871, when I left for port. Chalmers, arriving there the same day I was out of work for two or 3 days getting my meals in the best way I could after being down there about 4 days, when I succeeded in getting work down the river cutting fine wool. To cut 20 cord of wool at 20 shillings a cord I finished cutting wool on the 27th of June. Shipped on the steam ship Nevada on the 29 day of June, left on the 30 for Littleton upon Nelson, Wellington and Auckland, and Sandwich Islands, arriving there on the 13th of August, 1871, discharged cargo and mails, and left again, on the 15th of August, for Auckland, New Zealand, layed in Auckland 3 days, and then left for Wellington Nelson, Napier, Littleton and port. Chalmers, New Zealand, layed in port Chalmers, for 10 days, and left again for Littleton stopped there 4 hours and left for Napier Nelson, Wellington and Auckland layed in Auckland 3 days, and then left again for Navigator Islands, and thence to Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, layed latitude 21.19.0 North Pacific Ocean. It is a very warm country, indeed, there is no winter here but it is no colder than what it is in our summer, there is an abundance of fruit growing, there such as Oranges pine apples, figs, dates, Bananas, mangoes, Apples, Water Melons, Cantaloupes, and a great abundance of other products such as,

- 1871. -