

New Bedford Mass. December 2nd 1842

Ship Geo. South Capt. R. T. Ash

This is a short journal with of George B. Brown Third Officer of Ship Geo. South which sailed for
 New Bedford on a whaling voyage to the north
 Ocean. Brown in the October 1st & George B.
 Brown & Co. who give a short account of each day work the names of the whaling the date of the voyage and also the names of the whaling ships.

The Ship Geo. South is a good ship of 1000 tons and has a fine crew. This ship was built in New Bedford and is now in service.

Edward R. Tappan Master Long Main Mass
 Henry S. Tappan First Officer " "
 William A. Tappan 2nd " Long Main Mass
 George I. Brown 3rd " W. Falmouth " "
 J. M. H. H. H. 4th " Cooper Wood Hob. " "
 J. H. H. H. Boatster Boston " "
 Francis " St. Helena " "
 J. H. H. H. " " " "
 J. H. H. H. " " " "
 J. H. H. H. " " " "
 J. H. H. H. " " " "
 J. H. H. H. " " " "

Seamen

George I. Brown " New Bedford Mass
 Benjamin H. H. " " " "
 William H. H. " Long Main " "
 John H. H. " Boston " "
 William H. H. " " " "
 George H. H. " Boston " "
 John H. H. " " " "

Dr. at Juan Fernandez

John	Anton	Portuguese	Seamen	Western Island
Anton	"	"	"	"
Manuel	Luz	"	"	"
Henry	"	"	"	"
George	Emerson	" (Ala. Chas.)	"	"
Francis	Mc Carff	"	"	"
Francis	Brownell	"	"	"