

Ship Charles Coast. of Peru. September 1838

Th. Friday 31st August 1888. At 11 A.M. saw a school of shales on our lee beam cover^d the boats. The shark went on and struck and kill^d one of 2 ft. in.
took him alongside with himⁱⁿ space for and both L.S. 7. 40 fms. Lat. 9° 25' S. Long 86-10 W. -

24th. Saturday Sept. 1st 1838. Moderate trades and pleasant.
Boiling the blubbing. Steaming to the H. of the River.
Th. 60° 8. 40. 22. 8. 1°

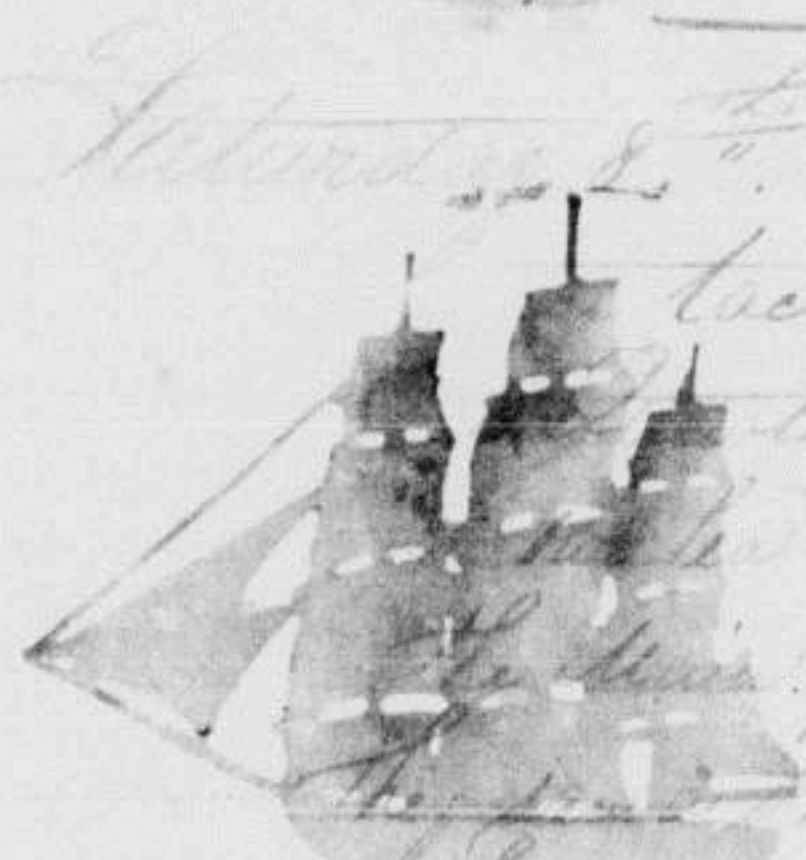

278. Sunday 3^d. Moderate trades and pleasant weather.
Sailing, saw black fish. Lat 8° 48'. Long 87° 23' W.
Sailing to the S. on wind. 16 miles per hour.

8. Thursday 6th Moderate with ice. W. 11. 920 ft.
 Tuck & the Ice. Lat of noon. 82. 50. S. Long. 124. 5.
 6 p.m. Haul the ship. Haul & Haul H. of H. H.
 11 months out for this. and the ship. Captain. H. H.
 21. H. H. 9000. Sounds this day.

Ship Charles. Coast. of Peru. Sept 1839

8. Monday 4th Sept. 1838. Strong breeze, S.W. Steering S. by E. then
S.W. by E. 5 A.M. took to the E.C.C. saved Ship's crew & their monster Levi's 37 L. Long 57 25 ft. 17 ft. 6 in.
brought to 4 ft. 6 in. 3 ft. 6 in. spoke the ship's crew & engine spoke the black & the white, all of them taken in the boat at 7 (the M. so near this day.

8. Returned 20th Strong trades and squally p. 5. The tack ship to the N. W. in sight of our "Mermaid" at 10. Lat 9-58. Long 57-10. At 1 p.m. saw a ship on starboard bearing S. 2 p.m. she was hailed to the Colonel on the Union. Apparent bearing S. 4 p.m. spoke her, the "Optima".
She was a bark of 300 tons & rising, but the crew being 6 p.m. back to the N. W.

8 Monday 4th Strong breeze S.W. & S.W. N. backed up to 10
S.W. & 4 AM wind rose to the E. till 8 AM breeze
& 7 P.M. back to the S.W. —

86. Monday. Strong trades and wind. Lat 8. 41. 2.
Long 87. 50. W. 6 ft. N. N. E. of the equator. S. S. E.

8. History of. Among traders p 34. Mr. L. to the Gov.
Nothing in sight. Led? S. 40. S. Aug. 57. 40.

88 Wednesday 12th Strong trades @ 2 AM. back to the 7th.
under double reef? topsails & 4th pole seen a land on the lee bow. Lat 8-25. Long by L. Obs 89-44

87 Thursday 13. Steamer took to the Sea. Went up 2 p.m. back to the Sea. Left 9 a.m. Long

290 Friday, 14th Heavy fogs and cloudy, saw no birds on a small island off the tip of Kentuckab... Lat. 8-30. S. Long 87-28. W. 15.