

Remarks on Board Barque C. W. Morgan of New Bedford

Monday June 2^d

Fine weather and pleasant all this day we are still making out and stowing down in the same part of getting ready for sea lying at Bay of Island.

Tuesday June 3^d

at Bay of Island with very fine weather breaking wit to slow aft rigging for going ship for sailing

Wednesday June 4th

This day all hands employed in breaking out and stow down oil in the aft whole the weather very fine and pleasant

Thursday June 5th

This day commence with light squalls and rainy but still cleared up and we look in some provisions in the latter part we stow down

Friday June 6th

Go anchor at Bay of Island this day we have a very fine weather the wind to Eastward but no rain had one man run away

Saturday June 7th

Light breeze and pleasant to anchor at Bay of Island this day we lost run way and brought him aboard

Sunday June 8th

Go anchor at Bay of Island at 7 A.M. we got under way and came to N. in such of the thing that was sent there we come to anchor at 7 P.M. at Mangonui with wind N.E. and partly squally in the morning

500 from Captain

Stowed Provision

one man run away

lost the run way

Left Bay of Island

Come to anchor at Mangonui

C. F. Keith Master on whaling voyage in the South Pacific

Monday June 9th

Go anchor at Mangonui getting ready for water breaking out and stowing down

Tuesday June 10th

Go anchor at Mangonui getting water and stowing provisions this day the light rain the wind from N.

Wednesday June 11th

Go anchor at Mangonui getting water & we got one cask molasses from a steamer and we have three men on the black list for want to run away but still we had one man run away

Thursday June 12th

Go anchor at Mangonui getting water this day we are looking for the run way but did not find him

Friday June 13th

This day begins with light breeze but in the latter part strong breeze from N.E.W. and squally

Saturday June 14th

Light breeze and rainy in the first of the day we are still getting water to anchor at Mangonui

Sunday June 15th

Go anchor at Mangonui the day in the morning we have up one anchor and clear the chane and let go again most of the event on shore

Monday June 16th

Fine weather all this day we look in some courage and some other stuff took in some wood and water three men in irons for want to get away

lost man run away

look in rigging